FREE HAND ON PANAMA CANAL

Chief Engineer Stevens Can Carry Out His Own Ideas.

BARRIERS OVERCOME

Chairman Shonts Declares that All Obstacles Are to Be Wiped Out.

NO TROUBLE TO GET LABOR

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

OYSTER BAY, N. Y., July 14.—Important details concerning the forthcoming peace conference between plenipotentiaries representing Russia and Japan and matters relating to the construction of the Panama canal were under consideration today by President Roosevelt. He and Mrs. Roosevelt had as guests at luncheon at their Sagamore Hill home, Minister Kogora Takahira of Japan, Theodore P. Shonts, chairman, and John F. Stevens, chief engineer of the isthmian canal commission, and Thomas W. Hynes, auditor of Porto Rico.

Chairman Shonts and Chief Engineer Stevens remained with the president some time after the departure of Minister Takahira. This was the first opportunity the president had had to discuss canal matters with Mr. Stevens, and they went over the subject pretty thoroughly. As both Mr. Shonts and Mr. Stevens expect to sail for Panama on the 20th inst. the president desired to consult with them before their departure.

Has His Own Ideas.

It is not likely that Mr. Stevens will be made, in the near future, a member of the executive committee of the Panama canal commission, a position occupied by his predecessor, Mr. Wallace. It can be said that Mr. Stevens has been given practically a free hand to do construction work of the canal. He has his own ideas about the methods to be pursued and will not be interfered with in the work of his department. His desire is to dig the canal and to that great undertaking he will devote all his energy and ability, leaving the executive and administrative details to be worked out by Chairman Shonts, Gov. Magoon and the commission. After the conference with the president, Chairman Shonts talked frankly about the work of the commission and about canal conditions.

"Our talk with the president, today," said he, "was of a general character about canal matters. The president desired to see Mr. Stevens before we left for the isthmus and to discuss with both of us the progress of the work. Just now we have about 12,000 men at work on the canal. This is about as many as we could employ under the existing conditions.

Executive Staff Organized.

"We have our executive staff thoroughly organized now, but the organization has not been completed on the isthmus. That is a part of the work Mr. Stevens will have to do. His engineering staff must be organized and its work mapped out.

"We must make arrangements for the housing, feeding and general care of our employes, in itself a great task; and we must complete the sanitary arrangements in the American zone. All this will require time and energy and hard work, but it will be accomplished successfully. I have about concluded arrangements with a man who is to go to the isthmus to arrange for the recreation of the canal employes. We will have reading rooms, amusement halls and all that sort of thing, by means of which the men may pass their idle hours pleasantly and profitably."

Health Conditions Exaggerated.

"No," continued Chairman Shonts, in response to an inquiry, "the sanitary conditions on the isthmus are not so bad as they have been reported to be. A lot of people have become frightened by the yellow fever, but it is not so bad as might be expected. In fact, the reports from the isthmus regarding health conditions have been greatly exaggerated. Judge Magoon has sent reports that present the exact conditions, and they have been made public precisely as he sent them. He and I agreed before we went to Panama that the exact conditions should be made public and that agreement has been kept both by him and by me. Out of 20 cases of yellow fever in May we lost only two, and in June out of more than twice that number we lost only four. The sanitary conditions are being bettered all the time and as soon as we complete arrangements for an adequate supply of pure water we shall have little or no difficulty.

"My belief is that the actual digging of the canal will have to be done by laborers inured to the tropical climate. That labor we shall be able to get, I believe, without any serious trouble."

May Use Some Chinese.

Asked whether it was his idea to use Chinese labor on the canal to any extent, he replied that some Chinese from the rice fields of Northern China probably would meet the labor requirements on the isthmus, but he doubted whether the northern Chinese could live and work well in the tropical climate of Panama. Adverting to the Panama railroad, he said:

"We have been devoting a good deal of time recently to the Panama railroad. It is now in excellent condition. While it is only 47 miles long, the road, including the necessary sidings and spurs, has nearly 500 miles of track. Of course, it is being operated as a business enterprise. The traffic over it is extraordinarily heavy. Such business as is purely commercial, and that business is large, is handled just as it would be by any other road, and such business as the road does for the canal is charged against the canal commission and goes as a part of the canal construction expenses."

Chairman Shonts was asked whether he could say anything regarding the proposed transfer of the isthmian canal commission and its affairs from the war department to the state department.

RACE RIOTS RAGE IN NEW YORK CITY

Policemen Battle for Hours With Mobs and Many Are Injured.

FIGHT OVER A LARGE AREA

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

NEW YORK, July 14.—"San Juan Hill," the district bounded by Amsterdam and West End avenues and Sixty-first and Sixty-third streets, so called because of its notoriety as a battleground, was the scene tonight of a furious race riot which required 250 policemen to quell, after many shots had been fired and several persons had been seriously injured.

The trouble began when a policeman arrested Edward Connelly for attacking Henry Williams, a negro, and was pursued to the station house with his prisoner by a mob of Connelly's friends, hurling showers of stones and other missiles. When the station house reserves turned out the whole neighborhood was in an uproar and negroes engaged in desperate struggles in the streets. Torrents of missiles were hurled from roofs and windows. Within 10 minutes not less than 1,000 men, boys and women, black and white, were engaged in furious combat.

The small party of police were powerless and reinforcements were summoned. On their arrival a cordon was drawn around the whole district and strong patrols made repeated charges down the streets in a vain effort to restore order.

Roundsman Patrick Walsh was knocked down by Joseph B. Smith, a negro, who leaped upon him from a stoop and after attempting to shoot him struck him repeatedly with the butt of his revolver. Walsh was finally rescued by his comrades.

Squads of men were sent along the roofs of the houses in Sixty-second street where the fighting seemed heaviest. They walked from West End avenue to Amsterdam, clearing the roofs, and found that many chimneys had been torn to pieces to furnish ammunition to the rioters, and in the corners of roofs were mounds of bricks, pottery and bottles. More arrests were made and several whites and negroes were rescued from gangs of assailants, but desultory combats continued.

For more than half an hour cars on the Amsterdam avenue line were blocked. Colored men pursued by whites took refuge on cars as they passed, and were followed by showers of bricks and stones as they fled. Every window in many cars were broken and passengers took shelter in neighboring houses. Conductors and motormen hid under seats, leaving their cars to the mercy of the mob. Several passengers were hurt by stones and broken glass.

Commissioner McAdoo arrived at 11 o'clock and made a tour of the battlefield, the fighting by that time having ceased. He said the riot could not have taken place had not the rougher element been permitted to carry arms. They appeared to have a regular arsenal of weapons as the police found when they searched the prisoners.

TRAINMEN ARE BURNED.

Three Killed in Wreck Which Catches Fire from Burning Oil Tank.

MARSHALLTOWN, IA., July 14.—Three trainmen were killed and two were probably fatally injured today in a freight wreck on the Iowa Central railroad, near Richland, Iowa.

A car of oil took fire, the tank exploded and burned the bodies of the killed to a crisp. The fire destroyed a bridge over a creek where the wreck occurred and burned six cars.

Conviction Depends on the Fish.

CINCINNATI, July 14.—Unless City Attorney James Thornton of Newport, Ky., returns from a fishing camp and is ready Monday to prosecute the cases in police court that grew out of Caleb Powers' commitment to the Newport jail, all the cases will be dismissed according to the announcement made today by Judge Moore.

MAKES REQUEST FOR ARMISTICE

Baron de Rosen Is Believed to Have Made Suggestion to President Roosevelt.

ENVOYS TO GET $200 A DAY

[Special Telegram to The Gazette.]

OYSTER BAY, N. Y., July 14.—M. Takahira's visit to Sagamore Hill today, following closely upon the meeting of Mr. Roosevelt and Baron de Rosen, undoubtedly means that Japan and Russia are in communication with each other through the president of the United States. The Japanese minister declined to give the purpose of his visit, but admitted that his coming had nothing to do with the arrangements for the peace conference.

There is good ground for the belief that Baron de Rosen yesterday submitted Russia's request for an armistice in Manchuria. Instead of delivering the formal speech which he had prepared, Baron de Rosen is believed to have received orders at the last moment from the czar to make an explicit request for cessation of hostilities before the peace conference meets. It is thought that M. Takahira either brought Japan's answer to Russia today or came here to receive the original message from the president.

WASHINGTON, July 14.—(Special.)—It was said at the state department today that it was the understanding before Baron de Rosen, the Russian ambassador, left for Oyster Bay to present his credentials, that there would be no speeches made. In view of the approaching peace conference it was feared that some remarks might be made, which on any other occasion would have no significance whatever, but which under present circumstances might be misunderstood by the Japanese. Some surprise has been expressed at the informality of Baron de Rosen's reception. This makes the matter plain.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 14.—The salaries of the Russian plenipotentiaries have been fixed at $200 a day each, besides an allowance of $7,500 for traveling and other expenses.

Plans for the reinforcement of Gen. Linevitch's armies are keeping pace with the preparations for peace negotiations. The Nineteenth army corps has received marching orders and the mobilization of six regiments of Cossacks has been successfully accomplished.

PRISONER MAKES ESCAPE FROM FAST MOVING TRAIN

Michael Kolinski Leaps from Car at Orrville, O., While Being Brought Here, but Is Recaptured.

Michael Kolinski, aged 40, who was arrested in Hawthorn, Ill., several days ago by order of Postoffice Inspector Frank O'Brien to answer a charge of forgery on the Hays borough postoffice, made a sensational escape from a Pullman car on a fast flying Pennsylvania train near Orrville, O., yesterday afternoon, while en route to this city. He was later recaptured at Salem, O., and is now in the Allegheny county jail.

Kolinski, who was being brought from Chicago to Pittsburgh by Deputy Marshal Kent of Chicago, asked the privilege of entering the toilet room of the Pullman car while the train was rushing along at a high rate of speed. The permission was granted and a moment later the form of a man was seen leaping through the air. He had jumped out of the window while the deputy marshal kept guard outside.

The train was stopped and a search began with the result that the prisoner was recaptured several hours later in Salem. Kolinski is accused of forging the name of a fellow countryman to money orders received by him under the other man's name at the Hays postoffice.

Opposed to Boycott of Goods.

WASHINGTON, July 14.—Mr. Rockhill, the American minister at Pekin, has cabled the state department that the Chinese government is vigorously opposing the threatened boycott of American goods.

WITTE QUARRELS WITH THE CZAR

Report that Russian Peace Envoy Will Refuse to Undertake Task.

STORMY INTERVIEW AT PALACE

[Associated Press Cable to The Gazette.]

ST. PETERSBURG, July 15.—M. Witte, after his audience of the emperor at Peterhof returned last evening to St. Petersburg and drove directly to the foreign office, where he was closeted for three hours with Foreign Minister Lamsdorff.

A sensational report was current early this morning that M. Witte might not go to Washington after all. According to the story his audience of the emperor was anything but smooth. His majesty rather resenting M. Witte's plain-spoken ideas and indicating that under the circumstances he would prefer that Baron Rosen should act as chief plenipotentiary. The emperor is even said to have intimated that Count Lamsdorff exceeded his authority in officially announcing to the Washington government that M. Witte would occupy the first position.

M. Witte is said to have left the emperor in an ugly frame of mind and to have frankly informed Count Lamsdorff that it would be impossible for him to undertake the mission. It was only by the greatest effort, the story says, that the foreign minister succeeded in persuading him not to flatly refuse, and the question as to whether he will go to Washington is said to be still open.

VAST TREASURE FROM ALASKA REACHES MINT

Largest Shipment of Gold Ever Received from Frozen North Reaches Philadelphia.

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

PHILADELPHIA, July 14.—More than $3,000,000 in Klondike gold, the biggest shipment of precious metal ever received here from the gold fields, was stowed away today in the vaults of the United States mint. Six men, heavily armed, all federal agents, guarded the government's treasure from Alaska to Philadelphia, and nothing occurred during the journey to relieve its monotony.

Superintendent Landis of the mint had been on the lookout for the arrival of the bullion for weeks. He received dispatches from time to time telling of the whereabouts of the treasure on its journey east. Before dawn the bullion arrived.

The gold was packed in strong wooden boxes, devoid of marking, and there was nothing about the cases to attract attention. A government wagon met the train and while the guards from the west rested themselves the treasure was transferred.

EX-OFFICIAL IS INDICTED

Two True Bills Found Against J. W. Hill of Philadelphia.

FORCE IS REDUCED

Mayor Weaver Orders the Dismissal of Fifty City Employes.

LEGAL FEES UNSETTLED

The Pittsburgh Gazette Bureau, Press Building, PHILADELPHIA, July 14.

District Attorney John C. Bell today secured two true bills of indictment against John W. Hill, ex-chief of the filtration bureau. Forgery and falsification of the records of his office are the charges. The two witnesses who appeared against Hill at the magistrate's hearing have left the city. One is said to be in British Columbia, the other in South America. Mr. Bell has asked Judge Gordon, the mayor's counsel, to produce the witnesses and has been informed that they will appear if their evidence is "indispensable."

Mayor Weaver today dismissed 50 more men. They were employed in the bureau of water. The reasons given were inefficiency and insufficiency of employment.

The new director of public works today awarded the contract for the collection of garbage next year to a local firm. The bid of the successful firm was $339,570, a reduction over the contract price for this year of $160,425.

Praise for Mr. Bell.

District Attorney Bell makes public the following letter written him by D. M. Johnson, former district attorney of Delaware county:

"As a former district attorney of Delaware county, permit me to commend your stand against dictation by private political prosecutors as to how you shall conduct yourself in your office. Under present conditions it takes a brave man to hold to the line of duty against the unreasoning clamor for victims regardless of decent respect for the traditions and practices of our courts as handed down from Anglo-Saxon ancestors.

"I write this because a man in your trying position endeavoring to perform his plain duty ought to have the expressed sympathy of those who realize that he is doing right. I trust you are made of such stuff that you will not be swayed by the howl of political demagogues, who are themselves afraid to prosecute those whom they claim to be the chief criminals."

Question of Legal Fees.

Mayor Weaver, accompanied by Attorneys Gordon and MacVeagh, left for New York this afternoon to consult with Elihu Root. In regard to attorney's fees the mayor was asked:

"Will you say, Mr. Mayor, what retainer was paid Mr. Root?"

"I could not answer that question without consulting Mr. Root. I assure you, though, that it was not near $50,000."

Alexander De Haven, chairman of the financial committee of councils, said when shown the statement:

"Councils have not appropriated one cent to pay Mr. Weaver's private counsel for their services. I don't think it is necessary that the mayor should go outside of this city's paid lawyers for advice or prosecutions. The city has a well equipped and excellent corps of lawyers who could do the work."

Among other indictments returned today by the grand jury was one against Representative George Little, who is charged with being a party to a conspiracy to pad the assessor's lists.

CHESTER D. POTTER.

PROMISES A SENSATION.

Mayor Weaver Declares His Visit to New York Will Bear Fruit in a Few Days.

NEW YORK, July 14.—(Special)—Mayor Weaver of Philadelphia came to New York today and as the result of a conference with Elihu Root it is probable that within the next few days there will be a startling climax in the political turmoil of the Quaker city.

"I can say," Mr. Weaver remarked, "that every phase of the situation in Philadelphia was taken up by us and discussed in all its details. I am entirely satisfied with its results and within a few days it is not improbable that it will bear fruit. You may draw your own conclusions from what I am telling you, and a slight familiarity with what has been going on in Philadelphia ought to be sufficient to make possible the logical conclusions from this statement."

BANK DIRECTORS MUST MAKE GOOD LOSSES TO DEPOSITORS

Suit Instituted Against the Board of the Central National Bank of Boston by Receiver. Charges Fraud and Collusion.

[Special Telegram to The Gazette.]

BOSTON, July 15.—Acting under direction of the controller of the currency at Washington today, Frank D. Allen, the receiver of the defunct Central National Bank of Boston, brought suit in the United States circuit court against the board of directors of the institution, alleging gross negligence, wasteful mismanagement, wrongful, fraudulent and collusive conduct in office, and the wilful and persistent violations of the federal statutes governing national banking associations.

Mr. Allen asks that a full accounting be made and that the directors be ordered to pay to him for the benefit of the stockholders and creditors the amount of the losses which led to the failure of the institution and for which he believes them responsible. This sum may reach $200,000. Several of the directors announced tonight that they will fight the case to the finish.

The controller believes that the condition of affairs as revealed by Mr. Allen's examination and report discloses one of the most astounding cases of fraud and mismanagement which has ever come to his attention in connection with the winding up of the affairs of a defunct banking institution in this country.

MUST GO DEEP INTO JEANS

Hump Speculators Have to Raise Fund for "Campaign of Education."

NEED MUCH MONEY

Will Cost a Great Deal to Secure a Majority for the $2,000,000 Loan Bill.

NO "OLD LADIES" IN CHAMBER

Land speculators in the hump district will have to go deep into their jeans to raise a fund with which to conduct the "campaign of education" to be started by the city administration. It will cost money to secure a majority of the votes for the $2,000,000 loan bill. While those who will be directly benefited by the change in grade expect to saddle the cost on the taxpayers of the city, the managers of the improvement scheme will insist they furnish the sinews of war.

Especial effort is being made to secure the votes of the South Side. Gilded promises are offered concerning the purchase of the plant of the Monongahela Water Company. Work is being rushed on a big water main from Highland reservoir to the South Side and there will be a wonderful show of activity on the part of the special water committee of councils that will act in accordance with orders from the city bosses. By August 22 it is hoped the South Siders will be jollied into the belief their greatest benefactors are the men who are promoting the hump cut.

Silent on East End Plans.

What form the "campaign of education" will take so far as the East End is concerned has not been uncovered. It is probable the property owner will not be importuned for his vote. The non-property holder will be besieged for assistance and glowing pictures will be painted for him. There will be another strenuous effort to round up the coachmen and butlers.

Mayor W. B. Hays yesterday signed the ordinance authorizing a special election on August 22 for the purpose of determining whether the city will issue $2,000,000 worth of bonds to be used as part payment of the cost of the removal of the hump. A year ago the mayor was of the opinion the improvement would cost a great deal more than the amount estimated. He is really not assured the $2,000,000 loan will cover the cost this time, but says he is satisfied to take the chance. Mr. Hays will this morning leave for the mountains of Virginia on a fishing trip. He will be gone a couple of weeks. He signed a blank proclamation yesterday and it will be issued later to officially inform the voters of the date of the election.

Not "Old Ladies" Now.

Director E. M. Bigelow will appear before the chamber of commerce Tuesday afternoon to talk hump. He used to say the body was made up of "old ladies," but for the present the remark is withdrawn. He is in need of all the assistance he can secure and wants this organization to aid in the "campaign of education."

When the director addresses the chamber he may give out the real information concerning the improvement the people are anxious to obtain. So far he has followed the plan of last year of not taking the taxpayers into his confidence. There has been no data furnished to indicate the real extent of the cut, the number of property owners waiving damages or the cost of the removal of the hill.

Director Bigelow did not come into the city yesterday, but remained at home to rest from his labors of jamming the ordinance through councils. While there he prepared some figures by which he hopes to convince the South Side it has been well cared for in the past and should be content to return a large majority for the big loan bill to be used for the benefit of a district of the city.

Mr. Bigelow says the South Side's share of the hump improvement will be $187,000. The debt must be paid in 20 years. According to him there are many properties over there which do not have a value of more than $2,000. He promises the mileage will not be increased more than three-eighths of a mill to these taxpayers or an additional cost of 10 cents a year.

Casts Up Other Things.

The director also talks about the paving of Brownsville avenue. He says the improvement cost $27.50 a foot and $2.50 a foot was paid by the abutting property owners. The cost of the entrance to the Twenty-second street bridge, the building of the Tenth street bridge and the purchase of the Smithfield and Point bridges is held up as instances of where the South Side got a great deal for nothing.

Administration workers secured what purports to be the indorsement of the Oakland board of trade to the removal of the hump by gag rule last night. A regular monthly meeting of the organization had been called, but owing to the hot weather and the absence from the city of many members, but 21 of the 300 members were present.

Of the 21 present, nine were members of the administration payroll, led by Contractor James McQuaide, who expects to help take down the hump, and reinforced by five other co-workers. Without any previous notice the motion was put to indorse the hump removal. Immediately the unsuspecting members raised up in opposition and asked that the matter be deferred until a special meeting could be called and every member of the organization be given opportunity to be heard and offered the privilege to vote on the indorsement. This the schemers refused to do and demanded a vote on the motion which barely carried by a vote of 15 to 12. Much indignation was expressed by the members present over the methods employed to secure the indorsement of the organization, and it is proposed to call a special meeting to reconsider the motion.

SUNSHINE GREETS SOLDIERS AT ERIE

Horseless Artillery Will Boom Formal Opening of Camp This Morning.

GUARDSMEN TENTING IN MUD

SPECIAL TELEGRAM FROM JOHN P. COWAN, Staff Correspondent.

ERIE, July 14.—There was trouble today when Battery B arrived. There were only six horses on hand to move the heavy guns with and the artillery men had to get out and push. The prospect was not a pleasant one and the men were not in any too pleasant a frame of mind. It was not until late this evening that enough horses were secured to park the four guns of the battery. A supply of horses is assured tomorrow afternoon.

It is no fault of the officers that the battery has been left without horses. When the Erie camp site was selected a contract was made with a local man to furnish the number of animals necessary to haul the guns. When the battery arrived this morning the man who had made golden promises to have the horses on hand came up and presenting his compliments to Quartermaster Furniker, said he was sorry that he could not get the animals.

Artillery Hard on Horses.

Lieut. Furniker in turn presented his compliments in language both forcible and eloquent. It was said horses were scarce in Erie, but among the people who had been expected to furnish horses there was the fear that a week's training in the battery's drills was not calculated to add to the sleek appearance of the steeds. However, six animals were secured and on Monday the battery will be fully equipped. This assurance was given tonight, and the members of the battery are happy in anticipation of plenty of work for their curry combs.

A glorious sunrise greeted the soldiers this morning when the troop trains of the Second brigade arrived at Erie bringing the Tenth, Fourteenth and Eighteenth regiments, Battery B and Troop F of New Castle. The soldiers marched at once to camp and joined their comrades of the fifth and the Sixteenth regiments, who got under canvas last night. The ground was still muddy from a week of rain and there was no little grumbling as the men plodded over the soggy ground.

The streets of the Eighteenth formed a veritable quagmire and there were numerous gullies where the water still stood, engulfing the soldiers over their shoe tops at every step. So unfavorable was the ground occupied by the Fifth that its camp was moved 50 yards eastward, necessitating the complete shifting of all the regiment's equipage.

To Open Staff Headquarters.

Col. Lewis Brown of Gov. Pennypacker's staff arrived here tonight and will establish his headquarters at camp tomorrow. Col. Brown is the only member of the general staff on the ground. Col. Samuel Moody, Col. A. J. Logan, and Col. Frank K. Patterson will reach Erie early next week and will remain until Friday. The governor and Maj. Gen. Charles Miller with the officers of the division staff will come Thursday morning on a special train and will remain two days.

The Duquesne Greys, Eighteenth regiment veteran corps, will enjoy camp with the officers of the Eighteenth. Col. R. W. Guthrie, president of the veteran organization, and William E. Watson, lea the vanguard of the visitors. Two score of the old-timers are expected and during their stay will be quartered at the Reed House.

Society Dames in Camp.

Thousands of visitors are expected and already the hotels are thronged with those delegations of the fair sex which are always an adornment of a summer encampment of the Pennsylvania guards. Sunday special excursions from Pittsburgh and other Western Pennsylvania towns will bring multitudes of friends of the guardsmen to Erie.

Mrs. A. J. Henderson of Pittsburgh, who has graced the mess tables of the Eighteenth in several camps, is here with Miss Van Duson and will take a prominent part in the camp's social program. Mrs. J. H. Bigger came today and Mrs. D. L. Gillespie chaperones a party of young women, including Miss Watt, Miss Williams, Miss Burchfield and Miss Gillespie. Mrs. C. R. Ferguson and Miss Bess Cory came from Pittsburgh to witness the formal opening of camp.

Capt. Samuel B. Cochrane and his rough riders from Kittanning are finely situated. His is Company K, of the Sixtecnth, and is the "Rookie" organization of the brigade. The militant spirit of old King Jucob, however, still prevails in the Armstrong county capital, and Capt. Sam's soldiers are not to be discounted by many of much larger experience. The fact that their captain served his country faithfully for years in the legislature at Harrisburg has given the Kittanning boys enviable fame throughout the whole guard, and they sometimes shimmer before they can address him with a military title. A colonel who observed this difficulty today suggested that Capt. Cochrane should give his men a course of training in Kentucky, where their toeines would soon acquire facility.

Two Pittsburgh automobilists were arrested in Erie tonight for scorching. They posted a forfeit at the police station and gave their names as S. T. Lorentz and J. L. Smith and then quickly disappeared. They explained that they were in haste to reach camp, having whizzed all the way from Pittsburgh.

BOOKS OF COMPANY MUST BE PRODUCED

Assistant District Attorney Wants to Know All About New York Society Paper.

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, July 14.—With Charles H. Ahle, held for the action of the grand jury, accused of attempting to extort $500 from Edwin M. Post, a member of the stock exchange, who says he was led to believe that if he did not pay this amount for a volume of "America's Smart Set," an unpleasant revelation about his personal affairs would be published in Town Topics, Assistant District Attorney Krotel continued today his inquiry into the affairs of the Society Editors' association, which was publishing the work.

He decided, too, that he would like to know something about the internal management of Town Topics, and for that purpose requested W. L. Daniels, secretary and treasurer of the Town Topics Publishing Company, to produce before him the books and accounts which would show what was done in the way of obtaining subscriptions for the work, "Fads and Fancies," for which the company received subscriptions amounting to $150,000, although the book, after four years of preparation, has not been issued yet.

Mr. Daniels asserted he was not the proper person to bring the books, saying this request should be made of Judge Deuel of special sessions court, who is one of the three directors of the company, holds a large share of its stock, has personal supervision of all articles that go into the weekly and is Col. W. D. Mann's representative in his absence. He said, however, that he would do all he could to produce them.

Holland of Georgia Strenuously Objects to Being Taken to Jail by Negro Constable.

M. B. Holland of Georgia was yesterday turned over to Constable John Manks, a negro, to be taken to jail, by Alderman Emil Spahr on information made by Margaret Bishop.

A fight resulted. Manks and the prisoner beat and kicked each other. Manks was cut about the face and Holland was beat up about the head. Alderman Spahr tried to interfere and he received blows from the prisoner, which sent him to the pavement. Constable W. H. Barclay took a hand in the fight and Holland was brought to jail. The three men were covered with blood stains.

UNITED STATES A WORLD POWER

Ambassador Porter Talks of the Important Place This Country Now Occupies.

EUROPE'S OPINIONS CHANGED

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

ELBERON, N. J., July 14.—Uppermost in the mind of Gen. Porter, who has recently retired as United States ambassador to France, is his realization of the growth of this country as a world power.

This was constantly impressed upon him during the eight years he lived in Paris and now that he has returned to his native land and has had an opportunity to get the perspective of affairs, the changes in the relation of the United States to the world have been more than ever impressed upon him. The general is now at the summer home of C. T. Cook, who is the father-in-law of the general's son, Clarence Porter.

"Everywhere in Europe," said the general, "I find that the United States is growing in the friendship and regard of the other nations. This country is everywhere recognized as a world power; the recognition began with the close of the Spanish-American war and has ever since been steadily growing.

"At first Europe was inclined to be suspicious of us, but as time showed the sincerity of our professions all that passed and we regarded ourselves as being a little too ambitious, but we revealed what we meant with regard to Cuba. The people of Europe became more interested in Americans, re-established more trade relations and went visiting to the United States. It is surprising to see the amount of American news which is now printed in the great journals of Paris and other European capitals. Happenings which a few years ago would not have been spoken of in Europe because they would not have been regarded as of any interest outside of the United States, are now freely and extensively discussed by foreign journals.

"In France I found everywhere constantly growing the regard in which that nation holds the United States. The two peoples have grown into a thorough understanding and when that is so there can never be any war.

"The citizens of the United States have the faculty of getting acquainted wherever they go and they meet representative men in Europe. This results in extension of trade relations and an interchange of ideas. I was especially impressed while in Paris by the steady growth of the study of the English language. The coming of a Harvard professor of literature to lecture in English at the Sorbonne shows this tendency and there were many other lectures in English as well."

Dr. Van Gessner testified that he had been driven from his leased ranges by the sheep war and had been forced to other pasture. Attorneys Biggs and Bares assured him he had a perfect right to lend money on timber claims. He loaned money on claims, taking a mortgage without interest, so long as he was allowed to use the range for his sheep.

SECRETARY TAFT AND PARTY AT HAWAIIAN CAPITAL

Have Had a Most Enjoyable Voyage Thus Far. Secretary Explains Administration's Policy of Chinese Exclusion.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

HONOLULU, July 14.—Secretary of War Taft and party arrived today on the steamer Manchuria. Soon after the vessel docked the visitors went driving to the Pali. They visited local places of interest and later had luncheon at the Royal Hawaiian hotel, where Secretary Taft made an address.

The Manchuria was met outside of the harbor by Acting Gov. Atkinson and a committee of citizens. The members of the distinguished party declared they had an enjoyable voyage to Honolulu. There were several dances on board in which Secretary Taft and Miss Roosevelt participated. Secretary Taft in an interview referring to Chinese agitations said that it is not proposed to admit more Chinese of the coolie class, but merely to treat with more courtesy Chinese who are entitled to admission to the United States. The Manchuria left for Manila tonight.

Secretary Taft and party were guests this afternoon at a luncheon given at the Hawaiian hotel. The dining-room was elaborately decorated and a large gathering of territorial officers and prominent citizens were present. Territorial Secretary Atkinson presided. In his address of welcome he made reference to the probability of Secretary Taft's being a future member for president, and his remarks met with general applause.

In responding to the toast, "The President," Secretary Taft began with a humorous reference to Miss Alice Roosevelt and her representation of the president. Continuing, he said that President Roosevelt was anxious to visit Hawaii, but, being unable to come himself, had sent along a member of his family, and that for straightforwardness and strenuousness, the president was well represented by his daughter. Secretary Taft suggested the best way to handle insular affairs would be to have a bureau at Washington devoted to looking after Alaska, Hawaii, the Philippines and Porto Rico.

Later in the afternoon Secretary Taft, Miss Roosevelt and others in the party went to Waikiki beach and tried surfriding. Secretary Taft says that Gov. Carter has had a successful administration of Hawaii, and he believed that the governor will withdraw his resignation after seeing President Roosevelt, who wants Gov. Carter to remain in office.

TWO WESTERN GOVERNORS SAY JEROME WAS FAILURE

They Claim He Went West With a Message of Weakness Rather Than Strength.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

OTTAWA, KAN., July 14.—Before the crowded Chautauqua assembly Gov. Hoch of Kansas took occasion to refer to District Attorney Jerome of New York as a great surprise, and he let it be known in no uncertain terms that the eastern reformer was a disappointment to the west.

He declared that when a reformer comes out here and makes such statements, he must know that they cannot stand without emphatic protest.

Gov. Folk was the orator of the day. His address on "Law Enforcement" was regarded as a reply to Jerome. Introducing Mr. Folk, Gov. Hoch said: "It was a matter of great surprise to me, as it doubtless was to you, my fellow citizens, that so distinguished a representative of law enforcement as Mr. Jerome should come to the west with a message of weakness rather than strength, of criticism rather than commendation, of hindrance rather than help, to those who were striving to uphold the standards of good government."

FIRST SUIT OF BIG WRECK.

Pennsylvania Railroad Company Denies There Was a Dynamite Explosion.

NEW YORK, July 14.—Denying that the wreck of its fast passenger train near Harrisburg on May 11 was caused by dynamite, or due to negligence of employes, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company today filed answer in the United States circuit court to a suit recently brought by Clarence F. Opper, of this city, who asks $50,000 damages for injuries received in that wreck.

Opper's suit was the first to be instituted against the railroad company by any of the victims of the accident. Mr. Opper, in his complaint, stated he was compelled to walk a long distance in his bare feet and his hearing, because of the explosion, was practically destroyed.

NEW YORK, July 14.—An attempt to detain Peary's arctic ship Roosevelt has been made by persons who notified the treasury department that the vessel had left Portland, Me., for New York without her clearance papers.

Dispute in School Board.

A dispute has arisen in the Sixth ward (Allegheny) school board over the payment of a bill for music furnished by the Pennsylvania band at the school picnic recently. John C. Kaiser, president of the board, was authorized to engage the band and, it is said, the trouble arose because the Sixth Ward Military band was ignored. Some members of the board are said to be of the opinion that Mr. Kaiser exceeded his authority, and for this reason the $75 bill is being held up.

COTTON INVESTIGATION IS NOW WELL UNDER WAY

Similar Leaks Reported in Tobacco Department and Inquiry Is Started There.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

WASHINGTON, July 14.—Richard Cheatham, secretary of the Southern Cotton association, was in lengthy conference with District Attorney Beach and Mr. Moran, acting chief of the secret bureau during the recent cotton investigation, today. Mr. Cheatham proposes to remain here for some time and will assist in the preparation of evidence upon which possible prosecutions may be based.

Through the receipt of numerous communications from the south and statements appearing in the press at various times that the statistics of the department of agriculture on tobacco were being manipulated in the interest of the so-called tobacco trust, Secretary Wilson has begun an inquiry into the subject. Pending the investigation the publication of the tobacco statistics of the several districts will be held up, although the regular monthly figures by states will be given out on Monday next.

It was stated at the department today that special agents have been sent to the dark tobacco districts of Tennessee and Kentucky for the purpose of verifying or correcting the department's figures. This action, Mr. Hyde, the chief statistician, said, was in deference to the sentiment which had been engendered that the department's figures were wholly incorrect. Mr. Hyde has been given direct charge of the investigation, which it is expected will be concluded within two or three weeks.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS CABLE TO THE GAZETTE.]

Of course, the foreign office could not deny that Emperor William and King Oscar had not spoken of alliance during their interview at Gelle yesterday, because the subjects of their conversation are not known here.

NEW DIRECTORS FOR EQUITABLE

Willis F. McCook, Pittsburgh Attorney, Will Help Guide the Big Society.

DEPEW WILL NOT MAKE GOOD

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU
Herald Building, Herald Square.
NEW YORK, July 14.

At a special meeting of the board of directors of the Equitable society, which lasted less than half an hour, 12 new directors were elected and the resignation of three members of this body were accepted. The names of the new directors were submitted by Grover Cleveland, Judge Morgan J. O'Brien and George Westinghouse, trustees of the stock owned by Thomas F. Ryan, and were as follows:

To fill vacancies for terms expiring December 31 next: Wallace L. Pierce, of Boston; Daniel A. Tompkins, of Charlotte, N. C.; Thomas Spratt, of Ogdensburg, N. Y.; Louis Stern, of New York; Frank S. Witherbee, Port Henry, N. Y.; and James McMahon, president of the Emigrant Industrial Savings bank.

For the term ending December 31, 1906, Willis F. McCook of Pittsburgh and Representative Charles E. Littlefield of Rockland, Me.

For the term ending December 31, 1907, Nevada N. Stranahan, collector of the port of New York and D. Cady Herrick.

For the term ending December 31, 1908, Nicholas Murray Butler, president of Columbia university, and Charles Zehnder, a coal dealer of Philadelphia.

Those whose resignations were received and accepted were Gen. Louis Fitzgerald, a former president of the Mercantile Trust Co., Horace C. Deming, now the president of the subsidiary company of the Equitable, and Frederick G. Bourne, commodore of the New York Yacht club, who was one of the ten directors recently nominated by Mr. Ryan's trustees and elected.

For a second time within 24 hours District Attorney Jerome today made an unsuccessful effort to procure from the New York office of the state superintendent of insurance an official copy of the superintendent's report on his investigation into the affairs of the Equitable Life Assurance society. District Attorney Jerome said he would inform the governor of the failure of the insurance department here to turn the Equitable testimony over to the district attorney's office, as promised.

When Mr. Jerome again called up the state capitol this afternoon he was unable to reach Gov. Higgins, but talked with his secretary, Mr. Perley, and it was arranged that Mr. Jerome should send to the governor copies of all the correspondence between the district attorney and the superintendent of insurance relative to his attempts to get a copy of the Equitable testimony.

PARIS, July 14.—Senator Chauncey M. Depew today emphatically denied the report published in New York that he had promised to indemnify the Equitable in case of loss over the loan made by that company to the Depew Improvement company.

Asked whether he desired to make a statement in regard to the agency telegram which was printed in the Daily Mail and which said that the outcry raised against Senator Depew marked the first stain upon his long public career, Mr. Depew replied that he saw nothing to add to what he had already said in regard to the contention with the Depew Improvement company and the loan made to that organization by the Equitable.

MR. M'COOK NOT YET DECIDED ON SERVING

Pittsburgh's New Director of the Equitable Wishes to Learn Situation More Thoroughly.

Willis F. McCook, the Pittsburgher who was yesterday chosen a director of the Equitable, said that he had not given sufficient consideration to the position to reach a decision as to accepting the election. He left last evening for Spring Lake, N. J., where he will stay over tomorrow. On Monday he will go to New York and confer with the Equitable officials on the subject. He will probably reach a decision then.

Mr. McCook said yesterday that he is not a stockholder of the Equitable, although he has $201,000 of life insurance in the company. He said:

"I would not care to become an Equitable director for more than one year, as I would not care to pledge myself to the work for a longer period. New York is some distance away and there is considerable for a director to do. Besides, I am not in a position to pledge myself to take up the duties of director in that big society for a longer period than one year.

"Therefore I would rather have been elected for a term to expire in December this year than December, 1906. These elections are being made to fill the vacancies caused by the resignation of directors and will have to be ratified in December."

That the Pittsburgh attorney and financier would be chosen to the Equitable directorate was not unexpected here. He has been prominent in this city for many years and his election is generally considered an excellent selection to represent the large policy-holding interest of the Equitable in Pittsburgh.

LIGHTNING'S BOLT DAMAGES SOLDIERS' MONUMENT

The discovery was made yesterday that the soldiers' monument in Braddock cemetery, Braddock, had been struck by lightning during the storm of Tuesday night, and the shaft cracked. Just what the damage will amount to will not be known until a close inspection is made. The lightning struck near the top of the monument and cut a furrow down to the base. The monument was erected 18 years ago by Maj. A. M. Harper post, No. 181, G. A. R., of Braddock, and the late Capt. William R. Jones. The shaft was dragged up Library street, Braddock, one of the steepest streets in the borough, by teams and when it stuck in the deep mud midway up the hill, Capt. Jones had 1,000 men from the Carnegie mills assist the horses in dragging the monument to the cemetery.

Again Wins First Prize.

Company I, First infantry, U. S. A., returned to the arsenal in Lawrenceville yesterday morning after a month's target practice at Fort Niagara, N. Y. For the fourth year this company carries off first prize, its rating showing 134 points above the other companies in the regiment. The detachment of 23 men from the Twenty-third United States infantry, which had been at the arsenal during the absence of the permanent company, has gone to Jefferson barracks, N. Y.

Electricians Are Arrested.

Both members of the firm of Morganstern & Ochiltree of No. 519 Fourth avenue, H. M. Raphael, No. 143 Washington street, and H. H. Bream of No. 708 Penn avenue, were arrested yesterday charged with violating a city ordinance, in putting up an electric device without a permit. They are all electricians and the information was made by J. A. Herron, superintendent of the bureau of electricity, before Magistrate Moke. All gave forfeits for a hearing this morning.

REAL ESTATE MEN ARE ANGRY AT PANHANDLE

Building Supplies Consigned for Growing Section Must Now Be Hauled for Miles.

Real estate men interested in the construction work in progress in West Liberty and other boroughs through which the West Side Belt line runs were much incensed yesterday when they learned that the connection between the West Side Belt and the Panhandle had been torn out by the Pennsylvania. That connection was the one by which thousands of feet of lumber and a large quantity of other building supplies were moving into the rapidly-growing communities. There is much lumber on the road now consigned by this route.

It will be necessary for this material to be hauled several miles in wagons from some station on the Pennsylvania, whereas until Wednesday night it could be carried close to its destination on the Belt road. Supt. C. V. Wood has formally notified consignees of the cause of the inability of his line to deliver the freight.

A. M. Neeper, general counsel for the Wabash interests here, was still in New York yesterday, but will reach Pittsburgh today. At that time a conference will be held between Mr. Neeper and First Vice President B. A. Worthington of the Wabash Pittsburgh Terminal. The plan of legal action will be outlined and if it appears that the Pennsylvania has exceeded the limits of the law, the case will undoubtedly go into court.

Mr. Worthington pointed out yesterday that the action of the Pennsylvania has not done the Wabash so much harm as it has given cause to many people for anger at the Pennsylvania. The coal shipments going over the Pennsylvania to points not reached by the Wabash, shipped from West Side Belt mines, can be sent over the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie or Baltimore & Ohio, both of which lines have connections with the West Side Belt.

TYPHOID ON INCREASE.

Many Cases Are Reported to the Bureau of Health, and Conditions Become Alarming.

Again is the city threatened with a typhoid fever epidemic. In the 24 hours ending at noon yesterday 24 cases were reported to the bureau of health. This is in excess of any day this year and ahead of any similar period of last year. For several weeks the number of cases reported to the health authorities have been steadily increasing. Doctors all over the city are busy night and day with typhoid cases, and most of them expect that the city will be in the midst of a full fledged epidemic before the close of summer.

Woods Run is also sorely afflicted in this respect. Officials of St. John's General hospital report 28 cases in their fever ward. Three weeks ago they had scarcely a case. The patients are nearly all foreigners who work in the mills. The mills furnish their workmen with water from artesian wells and the physicians state the wells must have become tainted from sewers.

Failure to find some place in which to dump its garbage has caused a threatening condition in McKeesport. The garbage plant collapsed sometime ago. At present back yards and cellars are filled with refuse, as those who haul the garbage cannot find a site in which to dump it. There was talk of buying a farm back of Port Vue on which to bury the garbage, but the Port Vue authorities threaten an injunction if an attempt is made to carry out this plan. It is probable an effort will be made to have the garbage taken to the plant of the American Reduction Company, near West Newton. It has been announced that a new $20,000 garbage furnace will be erected as soon as possible. In the meantime sickness is rampant and the indications are that it will become even worse.

WILL LAY CORNER STONE.

Belmar Christian Congregation to Hold Special Services—Mt. Washington M. E. Church Will Also Celebrate.

The corner stone of the Belmar Christian church, being erected in Rowan avenue, will be laid tomorrow afternoon with fitting ceremonies. Following a program of music and song, an address will be delivered by the Rev. Dr. Wallace Tharp of Allegheny, after which the stone will be laid by the pastor, the Rev. E. E. Manley.

After being closed for two months, during which time extensive repairs and renovations have been made, the Washington Avenue Methodist Episcopal church will be reopened tomorrow, and the event celebrated with special services morning, afternoon and evening. The Rev. Dr. N. L. Brown of Loechburg, and former pastors will speak, as will the Rev. Dr. George H. Elliu, the present minister. A program of special music will also be carried out.

The Rev. Dr. B. W. Anthony, formerly of Pittsburgh, who was elected president of Adrian college, Adrian, Mich., last fall, is here on a short visit in the interests of the college. Dr. Anthony states that the college enrollment is 63 per cent greater than last year, and that the college debt has been reduced by one-half.

MONEY IN HIS POCKET, AND BUNDLE IN BANK

Kazinerer Klins, who gave his address as Chicago, was found by Officer McDermott at South Twenty-first and Carson streets last night, intoxicated. When searched at No. 7 police station by Acting Sergeant William Schuler, Klins was found to have $172 80 in his pockets and a bank book showing that he had deposited $205 in a Pittsburgh bank yesterday. Klins said that he came here from Chicago yesterday and after depositing $205 of his wealth, started in to see the town, which he did.

Girl Laughs at Wrong Time.

During the rendition of a serious part in the Bohemian girl at the Nixen theater recently Miss Edith Givens, a chorus girl, is alleged to have laughed. This cost her her position, and she sued W. T. Carleton before Alderman James V. McMasters for a week's salary. The hearing was held yesterday morning when the girl claimed she had been discharged without the customary two weeks' notice. Manager Carleton claimed he had no contract with the girl, and the alderman took his view of it. The girl will not get the salary.

BOND PURCHASERS WANT THE ORDINANCE AMENDED

Allegheny Select Council Meets to Remedy a Defect in the Measure. Other Bills Presented.

Allegheny select council held a special session yesterday afternoon to introduce measures the city officials want acted upon at the regular meeting of councils next week.

An ordinance referred to the committee on finance amends the ordinance authorizing the issue of $420,000 of bonds for the payment of contractors' claims for street improvements, etc. The ordinance as it now stands does not provide for the assessment of any sum for five years to be paid into the sinking fund for the reduction of the principal of the bond issue. The purchaser, the Pittsburgh Trust Company, says the present ordinance is illegal and the one introduced yesterday remedies this.

Other measures introduced and referred were:

Ordinances for a retaining wall on the north side and west end of the Howard street pumping station; construction of new and the resurfacing of asphalt walks in the public parks; grading portions of Central park; authorizing the construction of a new steam and feed line at Howard street pumping station; vacating a portion of the New Brighton road; changing the grade of Anna street; regrading and repaving of Irwin avenue, St. Clair terrace and Washington avenue; changing the grade of Kirkpatrick avenue, St. Clair terrace, Allegheny avenue, Washington avenue, Washington avenue bridge approach and Sedgwick street; sewer on roadway from Ridge avenue leading to Monument Hill; construction of foot bridge in Riverview park; grading and macadamizing Riverview avenue; fixing the width of sidewalks on East street from Madison avenue to Royal street at eight feet; establishing the grade of Rhine street; authorizing the selection of a supervising engineer for the manifold system at Montrose pumping station; authorizing the purchase of a 5,000,000-gallon engine for the Howard street pumping station; granting a franchise to the O'Hara Street Railway Company to run its line along and over the Pittsburgh and Freeport road in front of the City House at Claremont.

The Allegheny County Light ordinances referred negatively at the last meeting of the committee on corporations were sent back to the committee.

After council adjourned the committee on finance met and recommended affirmatively the ordinance amending the $420,000 bond issue ordinance.

HOSPITAL AMBULANCE ADDS TO CASUALTY LIST

Carrying Unconscious Victim of Heat Stroke It Upsets, Breaks Driver's Legs and Injures Doctor.

NEW YORK, July 14.—After a fall from the top of a telegraph pole at Schneider street and Nostrand avenue, Brooklyn, where he had been overcome by the heat, Frank Stock, a lineman, while being taken to the Kings County hospital in a dying condition this afternoon was thrown out of the ambulance when it was overturned. The driver, Edward Server, had both legs broken, and Dr. Walser, the surgeon, was also severely injured.

Regardless of his own suffering, Dr. Walser lifted the driver into the ambulance, which was righted by several persons, and also carried Stock to the vehicle. After bandaging the driver's wounds and doing the best he could for Stock, who was unconscious, the physician drove to the hospital.

Stock remained unconscious throughout all the proceedings, and the physicians at the hospital say he cannot recover.

GET COAL & COKE R. R.

Rumor Comes from Charleston That Vanderbilts Have Bought the Davis-Elkins Line, Reaching C. & O.

The rumor came from Charleston, W. Va., yesterday that the Coal & Coke railroad, extending from Charleston to Elkins, has been sold to the Vanderbilt interests. The former owners were ex-Senator Henry G. Davis and Senator Stephen B. Elkins.

If this proves true, the new purchase will fill in an important link in the Vanderbilt line from Pittsburgh to the seaboard on the Virginia coast. It will reach the Chesapeake & Ohio, with which the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie management has long desired to have a connection.

The rumor would confirm in a degree also the reports that the "Little Kanawha syndicate" headed by J. Ramsey, Jr., formerly the head of the Wabash interests, will dispose of its properties to the Vanderbilts.

STILL WE GROW!

Once more we must knock out walls and build new rooms to care for the increased business which is the result of our modern up-to-date methods, our magnificent line of pianos, and other instruments, our very moderate prices and fair terms. In one department alone—that of grand pianos—our sales in 1904 increased more than 150 per cent over any previous year in our history. For this department the present quarters on our second floor are not adequate. We shall therefore during the month of August put a force of carpenters and decorators at work remodeling the entire fourth floor, which now contains eight large salesrooms, showing over 100 upright pianos. The new rooms will include four splendid apartments, two of which will be devoted to regular and special styles of grand pianos by four of the most famous makers in the world, embracing a stock of over 45 grand pianos in various sizes and finishes.

No such stock of grand pianos has ever been displayed in this part of the United States.

But just at this moment we need room.

We must have room even if we buy it, and buy it we will—from YOU.

If you need a piano we will pay you 20 per cent to take your piano NOW rather than after August first. We must get those 100 upright pianos out of the workmen's way before August 1. Will you help us do it?

Do you want to buy a brand new, fully guaranteed piano by one of the greatest makers in the world at a saving of 20 per cent? Think of it! You can save enough on the purchase price of a high-grade piano to take your family to the seashore and have the piano, too.

Your cash will go farther here than in any piano store in this country, and those who wish to pay monthly are offered the most liberal treatment and the courtesies of our entire establishment. The public of Pittsburg and vicinity has an opportunity to save thousands of dollars during the next two weeks in piano purchases.

Remember—any new piano in the house—from the highest to the lowest priced—you can have at 20 per cent discount. Remember this offer is good only during this sale. We will not duplicate present stock at the special discount.

Furthermore—we can take no instruments in exchange during this sale. First, there is no margin on which to load the extra expense, and, furthermore, we simply cannot find room for any second-hand goods. We will be willing to take your old instrument on sale after September 1 if you purchase a new piano now.

Monthly payments if you wish

The same reasonable terms are available to any responsible purchaser that are extended to our customers at all times.

Second-hand pianos

in such makes as A. B. Chase, Knabe, Fischer, Schumann, Chickering, Hamil-Tone, and other well-known pianos are here in great profusion and at prices beginning at $20 for square pianos, $50 for upright pianos and $280 for grand pianos.

We have issued a list giving description, prices and terms for the second-hand pianos offered specially this month. Send for it.

In Small Instruments

during this sale we offer a special straight discount of 20 per cent from any net retail price in our catalogue. And our complete catalogue of all kinds of stringed and brass instruments will be sent anywhere on request.

Use the coupon below if interested in the purchase of any kind of a musical instrument.

We will save you money on anything you buy now. As we said before, we need room. If you need a musical instrument we will give you our profit if you'll take the goods now.

"If I had been the supreme court I would have strained a point to declare that law constitutional." So Gov. Hoch is reported to have said in his bitterness over the decision declaring his state refinery law unconstitutional. Kansas has cause to be thankful that a man who would permit his prejudices to place a fancied expedient above the organic law of his commonwealth, does not sit upon her supreme bench. The influence of such a judge would soon bring upon the state a train of evils greater than any that could follow trust domination. The truth is, Kansas is to be congratulated on being rid of an impractical scheme before it cost her a lot of money.

So it appears that Mr. Stevens is to be entrusted solely with the work of digging the canal according to his own ideas, while Mr. Shonts looks after the executive and administrative end of the job. That strikes one as being eminently sensible. Mr. Stevens is a civil engineer. His experience and abilities are chiefly valuable in carrying out the actual construction of the canal. Then that's what he should do. Mr. Shonts is chairman of the commission by virtue of his ability to look after the management of men, financial affairs and other executive business. Then that's what he should do. Every successful business establishment adopts just this plan. It should work equally well in digging Uncle Sam's big ditch. Now let the dirt fly.

If an epidemic of typhoid is really beginning in Pittsburgh, it is time to call the attention of the public to at least two pertinent facts. The first is that physicians are not agreed on the question of the contagiousness of the disease. It is safer, therefore, to guard against possible spread of typhoid by segregating a patient in the home much as one would separate from the other members of the family a sufferer from scarlet fever or other unquestionably infectious disease. The second fact is that boiling one's drinking water cannot be too strongly insisted on. Even water from artesian wells may be polluted by sewage, as is apparently demonstrated in Woods Run, where an unusually large number of typhoid cases are reported among mill hands who have been drinking water supplied by such wells.

The fast-waning influence of Muscovite diplomacy at Pekin was probably manifest in China's demand to be represented in the peace conference between Russia and Japan. Coincident with Japan's prompt and decisive refusal to consider it, that demand has quickly subsided. Notwithstanding that the war has been fought almost entirely in Chinese territory, there are but two belligerent parties to it. It is Japan and Russia who must settle their differences. Russia has used Chinese territory as a base from which to menace Japan. Russia's future relation to that territory, therefore, must be determined from the point of view of the nation who has spent her men and millions to beat back the danger to her from that quarter. This being settled, the accounts which undoubtedly exist between China and Japan will form a proper subject for settlement, not by recourse to arms, but by arbitration.

The Epworth League convention was recently told by a speaker that "the habit of smoking tobacco underlies alcoholic intemperance and is the doorway to sin." It is not a defense of tobacco to brand such a statement false and intemperate. The testimony of almost any smoker is that there is no more connection between tobacco and whisky than there is between pie and highway robbery. The intemperate use of tobacco, or its use at all with certain constitutions undoubtedly has an injurious effect, physically and perhaps morally, but no more so than the use of certain other things. For instance, while cataloguing "doorways to sin" it might be mentioned that nothing is more certain to upset the liver, charge a man with bile and ugliness, and transform him from a saint into a brute, than the immoderate use of coffee. Yet many a clean-lived, temperate smoker has been solemnly lectured for his pet vice by a veritable coffee wreck.

A delightful trip is that which James J. Hill is arranging for the Japanese plenipotentiaries en route to Washington. By way of the Great Northern they will be conveyed to Duluth from whence they will be taken by water across the great lakes to Buffalo. The immensity of our great inland sea will doubtless profoundly impress the distinguished visitors. They will sail 937 miles through scenery unrivaled in beauty elsewhere on the globe. In leisurely fashion they may study a large part of the most highly-developed and prosperous section of the United States, and they will get frequent glimpses of King Edward's dominion. They will come immediately into contact with our wonderful traffic in iron, coal and lumber. They will see cities that have been made great by these industries. At Detroit and the Soo they will see something of our inland defenses. Most delightful of all, they will make these observations in a temperature so cool and an atmosphere so bracing that the memory of it will be like a refreshing draught when they reach the torrid capital of the nation in the sultry days of August.

Seeing the Light.

It is gratifying to note that the Dispatch is coming to The Gazette's way of thinking on the hump question. Our cotemporary has been going along blindly supporting the movement without inquiring whether Mr. Bigelow was pursuing a course which the taxpayers could commend. Yesterday, however, the Dispatch took notice. In discussing the various forms of the few waivers obtained it said "that before the matter goes to the public for a vote the waivers should be placed in uniform and indisputable shape." This is what The Gazette has contended all along. Further it said "it is clearly to be expected that before the people vote on the subject they will have full information as to the plans of the work and as to the execution of complete waivers conditioned to the plan adopted." Of course. The Gazette has said that unequivocal waivers should be obtained from all abutting property. The present form of the waivers obtained is such as to nullify most of them and the Dispatch knows it.

Now that the mayor has signed the bond ordinance the "campaign of education" which the Dispatch speaks about will have to be commenced. Our cotemporary says "the supporters of the project should understand that it is now incumbent on every one of them to put in the next few weeks in vigorous work to secure a favorable result." Of course again. And "vigorous work" in an election costs money. It is not unnatural that the beneficiaries of the hump cut should be requested to make liberal contributions for the cause. The "worker" wants his pay.

A Tax Promise Kept.

The tax reform movement in West Virginia, inaugurated by ex-Gov. White and afterwards advocated by his successor, Gov. Dawson, who really was the prime mover in the scheme, when secretary of state, has been fully vindicated by the recent action of the board of public works of that state in fixing the levy for general state purposes at 20 cents on the $100. The tax reformers promised that 11 cents of the 35 cents state tax would be taken off this year, but they have gone 4 cents better, all due to the placing on the tax lists corporation and other property that heretofore had paid virtually nothing in the way of taxes commensurate with their privileges.

While the reduction of the tax rate in West Virginia has been a purely business proposition and of a non-political character, the Democrats opposed the scheme simply because it was of Republican origin. Now that the Republican party has successfully carried out what was considered a perilous proposition, that party's hold on the government of the state cannot help but be materially strengthened with the taxpayers, who, as a matter of course, are Democrats as well as Republicans. The situation is made stronger by an assured further reduction in the tax rate next year. All of which goes to show that the Republican party in West Virginia follows the national organization in performing as well as promising—something that the Democrats, so far, have always failed to do.

Charity That Is Real.

It is gratifying to be told by those at the head of the philanthropy that the contributions for the purchase of ice and sterilized milk for poor and indigent children have been greater this year than ever before in the history of the association formed for promoting the charity. It signifies a growing interest in a good work that has about it almost limitless possibilities for saving and restoring life. But the committee on subscriptions to the fund declares that while there has been greater liberality shown there has also been an immense growth in the necessities of the work. The association has greatly broadened its work under the stimulus of popular approval and the calls for its aid. There are now three distributing stations in operation and it is the desire of the association to establish a fourth just as soon as sufficient funds are in hand to accomplish the work. It is confidently believed that this money will be received by the proper committee before the end of next week or even sooner. The warm weather of the past week has brought intense suffering among the poor and those who are confined to the narrow, hot, ill smelling courts and alleys. Upon the sick and feeble babies this suffering has fallen with painful and fatal results. It will not do to say that the sick and feeble babies would be better off dead. That is the doctrine of inhuman pessimism. These little creatures are human beings, born, it is true, under unfortuitous circumstances, but they are entitled to a fair chance for life in the start. The provision of sterilized milk and ice for these poor creatures, who without such charity would perhaps die, is one way of giving them a fair chance.

This is not a work that carries banners or gives opportunity for great display of personal glory, but it is, nevertheless, a humane and noble charity that is carrying life and strength into the dark and hopeless places of a big city. Contributions, however small, to the Sterilized Milk and Ice fund is one way of "doing it unto the least of one of these."

The Business Situation.

There has been a distinct improvement in sentiment during the week, which is logically ascribed to the showing made in the government crop report. This report indicated a yield of wheat that has been surpassed but once in our history, and a yield of corn greater than ever before harvested. Since the figures were compiled the weather has been favorable for wheat and corn, so that no deterioration has taken place thus far in July. The winter wheat harvest is nearly completed, and while spring wheat and corn have yet to encounter the critical period in their progress toward maturity, their condition is high enough to withstand some damage without jeopardizing fair average yields.

In a general way everybody appreciates what good crops mean to the business of the country, but it may aid to a better appreciation of the fact if we compare the agricultural industry with the business of railroad transportation, which ranks second in importance. Taking the government crop figures published last Tuesday, as a basis, it may be roughly estimated that the value of the cotton, wheat and corn crops this year will largely exceed $2,000,000,000. The value of minor cereal crops, hay and fruits will add an equal amount to the wealth that came out of the ground. The aggregate is more than double the gross earnings of all the railroads of the United States operating more than 210,000 miles of tracks and capitalized with bonds, stock and debt for a sum exceeding $13,500,000,000.

Another group of statistics which appeared during the week related to the iron trade. On the 1st inst. the capacity of pig iron furnaces in blast was smaller than for any month since March, and there was an increase in unsold stocks, but the record of both production and consumption for the half year exceeded all previous totals. A firmer tone is noted in the market, and since wage scales have been agreed upon for another year there are signs of increasing activity in the trade. In the textile trade, both at home and abroad, prices display an advancing tendency.

Speculative markets have ruled active and feverish. Wheat and corn declined, and cotton reacted after scoring a new high price for the year. The declaration of an increased dividend on Baltimore & Ohio common stock and the prospects for an increase by other companies, stimulated activity in the stock market, but the dealings were confined mainly to persons who make a habit of speculating. The public has not been in the market to any great extent. The large oversubscription of the Japanese war loan, both in London and New York, is pointed to as indicating sentiment among investors, but the indication is not convincing. As a matter of fact, investors have ignored bonds of railroad and other corporations which were offered on favorable terms, but which do not hold out the prospect for enhancement in market value. In other words, the buying of Japanese bonds is stimulated by the possibility that the nation will receive a large cash indemnity from Russia, out of which it will redeem its war loans at par. Another factor which has checked the demand for regular investment securities is the working of the money market, which suggests higher rates for loans.

A French scientist is said to be experimenting with a process by which he hopes to make gold out of lead. The men in this country who have tried to do the same thing are mostly retired from public life.

There is now $460,000 in the conscience fund of the United States treasury. If the stock jobbing crop report employes will make good the sum will receive a tidy increase.

QUIET OBSERVATIONS

By ERASMUS WILSON.

Getting married is one of the several ways leading to contentment, prosperity and happiness, but you have to marry right.

Marriage, as a matter of fact, is essential to happiness, for without it there can be no real contentment of mind. Men and women were designed and made to mate, and the first command or general order given them was to do so.

Marriage is, therefore, an ordinance of nature, and of life, and the penalty for its violation is death, even of the whole race of mankind.

It doesn't pay to thwart nature, or to attempt to do so, for she is as prompt and certain in enforcing penalties as she is in the matter of awarding prizes to those who respect and observe her ordinances.

In order that her rules and ordinances may be most carefully observed she has so fixed the tastes and feelings of living creatures that they have an inclination to obey her. This leaves her creatures without an excuse in case they fail to respect her decrees, for none can say they did not know about them.

And then she has it so arranged that when her decrees have been obeyed her obedient children are blessed with contentment, prosperity and happiness.

These cold facts are mentioned for the benefit of one who signs herself "A Single Woman," and for any others who may be interested in the ordinance of matrimony. Womanlike she wants to know a whole lot of things, and quickly, too. You may have noticed that characteristic in women.

And, isn't it well that they have that characteristic, seeing that men are inclined to be slow, methodical, and a bit lazy. One thing at a time is man's rule, but woman's is everything at once.

Some of the things she wants to know are not important, or at least not pertinent, while some of the others can be answered by herself, and in her own way, better than anyone else, or in any other way, for she knows her own tastes best, and she ought to know her own heart.

It is most important that a woman should know whether she is fit to marry before entering the lists. But, unfortunately for themselves and for others, a great many do not. They don't seem to understand that marriage is a serious thing, and that it imposes responsibilities on them which will be very hard to meet unless they are prepared for them.

The mere matter of getting married is easy and simple enough, but making a success of married life is neither easy nor simple. However, its difficulties are far from being insurmountable.

"What bothers me" writes "A Single Woman," "is that so many girls of the sillier sort get married while others who are bright, better reared and equally good looking are left over.

"This was brought to my attention not long since by the marriage of three girls in our town not one of whom knows the first thing about housekeeping, and who were in the habit of boasting that they didn't intend to learn how. Instead of helping with the work at home they lounged around, went to picnics or dances. They could chatter and laugh, but were never accused of talking sense. They said they were in the push and meant to marry as soon as they found men with money.

"Each of these married men who are making good wages, and from present indications they are spending it for them. These same men had chances to marry girls who would have been helpmates, but they preferred these butterflies.

"Why is it thus? For my part I can't understand how it is that such girls can find husbands when their betters are left in the lurch."

Some women, like some men, are very easily pleased—pleased with almost anything that chatters and dances and looks good.

Would our correspondent have married any one of the three men whom the three girls captured?

The chances are that the men got just about what was coming to them. At least they seem to have gotten what they wanted, which goes to show that they married in their proper class.

Women and men of this type are almost certain to marry. This may be due in a measure to the fact that they are emotional and more or less thoughtless, and don't know the difference between love and fascination.

When men and women of this sort meet they are apt to marry, for they feel that they can't get along without each other. And as long as this feeling continues they will get along swimmingly, but only too often it doesn't last much longer than the honeymoon.

Those who are more sensible are careful as to whom they marry, and are neither so easily captivated, nor in such a hurry as those who are emotional and thoughtless. They have the good sense to know better than to marry in haste and then have to repent for a long time.

In the times when girls were reared and trained to become practical, useful wives and good mothers, there were not so many failures in marriage, nor so many old maids and bachelors.

Nor was that away back in the dark ages, but within the easy recollection of many of you, or of your parents and uncles and aunts. And of divorces there were hardly any, while domestic troubles were almost unknown, and all because people married with honest purposes, and each was prepared to do their parts, and to do them well.

In these modern times girls are not reared and educated and trained to become helpful, practical wives, and worthy mothers, but rather to be chosen and kept by men of means. Industrious, practical men have no use for such wives, and when they happen to pick up that sort they usually find it necessary to let them go.

Good girls need not dispair, for there are good men coming and going all the time, and marrying as they go and come. Be patient and alert, for either indifference or anxiety will spoil your chances of success.

But first of all try to fit yourself to marry, for if you don't you surely will be disappointed in married life. Good homes are not ready-made, but have to be made ready.

NEIGHBORLY AMENITIES.

Pittsburgh, it is rumored, is to have the finest office building and the finest hotel in the world. Pittsburgh is the place where millionaires come from, but if it keeps on adding to its attractions more of them will stay there. Millions can talk in Pittsburgh as well as elsewhere.—New York Tribune.

When Mr. Frick's $10,000,000 office building in Pittsburgh is completed Pittsburgh certainly should do something to prevent a good view of it being hidden from the passing traveler by smoke.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Cleveland annexes suburbs when they are ready and willing. Its gaze in that direction sticks. Pittsburgh and Cincinnati try to seize them by force and often fail entirely.—Cleveland Leader.

TALKED OF IN GOTHAM

By FRANK A. PARKER.

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

NEW YORK, July 15.—The most troubled man in New York these days is Reginald De Koven. Mr. De Koven is not worrying about his own multiple interests or over the rehearsals of his new comic opera, but he is worrying about the activities of another gentleman, who calls himself "Reginald De Koven," and who in four years seems to have touched nearly every part of the globe. The thing that is most annoying to Mr. De Koven is not the fact that he gets the bills of the other "Reginald De Koven," but that often Mrs. De Koven gets letters from "her husband" which De Koven, the composer, is quite sure he has never written.

"At first," said Mr. De Koven, "I took this thing as a very good joke, but while I hope my sense of humor is pretty hard, I am beginning to fear that this thing may have a serious aspect. Only a short time ago a cablegram came to me couched in the most affectionate terms and sending a thousand kisses. I most decidedly objected to that sort of thing. I have consulted a lawyer as to how far I can stop this gentleman from using my name, which has a certain value—at least to me. About four years ago, while I was living in Irving place, New York, Mrs. De Koven was very much surprised one day to receive two letters from abroad enclosing checks to the amount of about $1,200. They came with a very affectionate letter signed Rexie and were evidently intended for someone else. We had the checks and letters returned to the sender. The climax came the other day when a cablegram came to me, collect, $14, and winding up with a most affectionate message. If it were for me it would be worth the money, but $14 is too much to pay for affection intended for some other man."

Doctor Takes Perilous Trip.

To relieve the sufferings of a dying man who had rolled from the roof of a six-story tenement house while asleep and then plunged down a 20-foot airshaft, Dr. Wood, from Presbyterian hospital, and Policeman Marshalder of the East Sixty-seventh street station, were lowered from the window of the first floor of the house down into the well by rope. John Thompson, 28 years old, was the man who fell from the roof. His groans were heard coming from the airshaft, and the policeman was called. Marshalder, after sending for an ambulance, was let down into the well, gas filled and musty. Then the surgeon was lowered after the policeman, and Thompson was administered to at the bottom of the well. The rope was then tied about his body and he was drawn up to the window. Thompson died two hours after he entered the hospital.

Fiancee of Mr. Green's Son.

Harold C. Dodge, uncle of Miss Gladys Dodge, the young woman drowned in the sinking of the yacht Normandie, in the Hudson river, said today that Miss Dodge was engaged to be married to Charles Green, a young broker and son of the man with whom she went out on the fateful voyage. "The elder Green," said Mr. Dodge, "is a well-to-do man 60 or 65 years old. He was contemplating the purchase of the yacht Normandie. When he arranged to try the yacht he asked my niece, who was to have been married to his son next September, to go out with him for a sail up the Hudson. In fact he asked all the family and also his son. The young man could not leave his business and none of the Dodge family could go except the girl. That is the way she happened to be on the yacht with Mr. Green."

Hot Diet Will Keep You Cool.

An evening paper prints a letter suggesting how to keep cool and also offering a few suggestions to the city officers on provisions that might be made in behalf of the suffering poor. "I would advise the public during this hot weather," says the writer, "to eat three or four raw onions during the day and drink nothing but cold coffee without milk in it. They will feel refreshed and sleep well at night. Onions are blood coolers, heart tonics and nerve settlers. Coffee is a liver cleaner and a fever knockerout."

Woman Handicapped by Conscience.

"I want to plead guilty to the crime I have committed," insisted Mrs. Agnes Germer, 33 years old, of Williamsburg, today in the Manhattan court. The woman was charged with the theft of a diamond pin from Mrs. Emma Nelson, who conducts a boarding house in Williamsburg, where Mrs. Germer was a boarder. Mrs. Nelson discovered the loss of the jewel last October and had another boarder arrested. Mrs. Germer soon moved away but wrote Mrs. Nelson saying: "I cannot sleep at night any more for thinking about that pin which I took. It constantly rings in my ears that I have stolen it from you." She was bound over to the grand jury.

Chin Tow Failed to Enjoy It.

Chin Tow, a Chinese laundryman, had a lively experience with a gang of young Americans early today at Broadway and Forty-third street. They stood him on his head, nearly jerked his queue off and battered his face. They were not after his money apparently, for they did not rob him. Chin Tow says he was walking down Broadway and had just passed the Hotel Astor when half a dozen young men, well dressed, but very drunk, surrounded him. His cries brought Patrolman O'Neill, which caused a sudden dispersal of Chin Tow's tormentors.

Not Expert at Walking on Water.

With a Bible in his hand and shouting that the Lord had walked on the water and that he could do the same, Harry Oakley leaped from the Battery wall and tried to end his life in the waters of the bay. Edward Koenig of the Eight United States regiment plunged in after him and the would-be suicide caught him and the two were saved by Edwin A. Keegan, a reporter stationed at the ship news office, who jumped overboard and, after a struggle, succeeded in releasing Oakley's death hold. Keegan was left to his own resources, and overcome from his efforts was rapidly sinking when fished out by a policeman.

PICKED UP IN LOBBIES.

Lincoln to Have Novel Annex.

Plans are being drawn for an annex for the Hotel Lincoln that will possess novel features. Proprietor George Schmant said last night that the deal for the rear of the property on which stands the building of the Christian Home for Working Girls, which property is just at the rear of the Hotel Lincoln lot, had been closed. A. L. Richmond, owner of the Lincoln property, purchased the lot for $30,000, signing the papers on Thursday. The purchase was followed at once by commissioning Architect H. Chase Hodgens to prepare plans for the structure. Mr. Hodgens was formerly a member of the firm of architects, Hodgens & Burns, which firm planned the present hotel building. As soon as the plans have been approved, bids will be asked for the construction. It is expected that the work on the annex will be begun within two months.

There will be a unique feature for hotels of this country installed in the new building. This will be that of three sample rooms with baths, a feature that has been found lacking by the commercial travelers throughout the country. In addition to this the elevator service will be built especially to care for the drummer's trunks and heavy baggage.

Getting Out of Hood's Way.

Another feature of the new addition to the Lincoln will be that of placing the engine, power plant and ice plant on the first floor of the addition. This will place the dynamos and other machinery and the engine about eight feet from the ground level. There has been considerable trouble experienced in past years in flood times by water running into the basement of the Lincoln, and thus rendering the power and ice plants and cuisine useless, at the same time causing much damage to the property.

The addition will be nine stories in height and in construction will be a counterpart of the present building. Whether it will be larger than the 40x60 lot has not been decided, although it is certain there will be a connection between the buildings. Between the Lincoln lot and the new purchase is a 20-foot alley, which is thought to be a private right of way. It is probable arrangements will be made either to vacate this or to build over it from the second story upward. It is planned to add 125 rooms to the Hotel Lincoln. The lot purchased by Mr. Richmond has now some old brick buildings on it, one used as a stable and another as a blacksmith shop. The annex will cost about $300,000, exclusive of the lot.

"Will It Be on Time Tuesday?"

Ticket Seller George Willis of the Water street station of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad was handing out tickets and change for good cash for his company's passenger department revenue, and it was evident that everybody looked alike to him. Suddenly, however, there came a change in his countenance. "Will you please tell me what time the train comes in from Kane in the evening?" asked a pretty and blushing young woman of the Chesterfield-an Willis. Willis, of course, like anyone under similar circumstances—that is, any real good ticket agent and business getter for his company—had to change his blank general countenance for one of more happy contour. He succeeded in telling the time of the train's arrival, but when the next question came he was nonplussed for a moment. This question was, "Will it be on time next Tuesday?" That was on last Thursday, and for the moment Willis had to think when and where he was at. But his railroad mind was there on the instant and he replied, "Why, certainly, Miss, the Baltimore & Ohio trains are always on time nowadays. Things are better than they used to be." The young woman thanked him and walked away. "Where to?" asked Willis of a prospective purchaser, at the same time following his fair questioner until she disappeared in the crowd.

"This indicates," said Mr. May, "that there is a great deal of new building going on all over the country, and when this transpires all industrial lines must be making good with prosperous times not abating in wide-awake communities, especially like Pittsburgh."

BATH ROBE CAUSES DOWNFALL

Actor at night, thief in day time, were the dual occupations of John G. Bergman, aged 23, who is said to be a member of a prominent Johnstown family, according to the allegations of the police. Bergman was an actor in the "When Johnny Comes Marching Home" company which has been playing at the Nixon theater. Thursday night he was arrested by Constable Joseph Morris of Homestead, charged with being a suspicious person, and since then evidence has been secured which indicates that Bergman has been robbing at a wholesale rate. He is now in jail on three charges of larceny.

The discovery that Bergman had goods in his possession which did not belong to him was made through his failure to pay his room rent to Miss Nettie Stroud of Ann street, Homestead, where he had been rooming for several weeks. Bergman is alleged to have represented himself as a steel worker at the Stroud home, but last week when he failed to pay his rent he was ordered to leave. His satchel was held for the rent, and on Wednesday members of the family opened it to see if it contained anything of value. In it were found a fine bath robe, a miscellaneous collection of jewelry, including a number of college class pins and considerable clothing and books.

Miss Stroud, in describing the contents of the satchel to one of her neighbors, mentioned the bathrobe, whereupon the neighbor announced that such a garment had been taken from L. H. Allport, a roomer at her home. The discovery of the alleged stolen bath robe was reported to Justice of the Peace George W. Giles, and an information was lodged against Bergman.

Justice Giles and Constable Morris learned that Bergman was acting at the Nixon theater and they attended the performance on Thursday night. After a short wait the justice and constable recognized Bergman. He was a soldier in the chorus. The officers went to the stage door at the conclusion of the play. Bergman looked upon his arrest as a joke, claiming it was a case of mistaken identity.

After arriving in Homestead he was given a hearing and when the contents of his satchel were exhibited, William M. Schuner, who rooms with Allport, identified a number of articles found in the satchel. Bergman alleges the satchel was left in his room by a stranger.

Yesterday Harry D. O'Connor, a civil engineer, with rooms in the People's bank building, Homestead, identified a book and a number of papers found in Bergman's room. The articles, according to Mr. O'Connor, were taken from his room at No. 3910 Fifth avenue, this city, several weeks ago. Bergman is alleged to have gone to the house and asked permission to use the telephone. After he left O'Connor's valise containing the book and a number of deeds and other valuable papers were missing.

A morrocco pocketbook bearing the name of Harry A. Hall, ex-United States district attorney, at present a foreign consul, was also found in Bergman's possession. This is thought to have been stolen from Attorney Hall, as well as a number of other articles found in Bergman's room.

PLANS NEARLY FINISHED FOR THE BIG U. P. PICNIC

Annual Outing Will Take Place at New Rock Point Friday, August 4.

Preparations are now almost complete for the largest annual picnic in this section of the United States, the joint outing of the United Presbyterian churches in Western and Northern Pennsylvania, Western New York, Eastern Ohio and Northern West Virginia. The outing will take place at New Rock Point park on Friday, August 4.

No less than 19 special trains have been secured for the day to carry the 15,000 or 20,000 people to the park. It is not impossible that the total number attending will reach 25,000 if the day proves favorable.

Two of the special trains start from the Union station, Pittsburgh, at 8 a. m. Two more come from Greensburg. One starts at Kittanning on the Allegheny Valley and one from Freeport on the West Penn. The Baltimore & Ohio will send three trains, one from West Newton, one from Glen Shaw and one from Foxburg. On the Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburgh one train will start from Punxsutawney.

The Pennsylvania lines will start trains from Wooster, O., Millersburg, O., Cadiz, O., Cambridge, O., Bridgeport, O., Youngstown, O., and Salineville, O., and from Stoneboro and Linesville in Pennsylvania.

The attractions at the park will be supplemented by a number of special features arranged for the day. One of these will be an address by a man of national prominence, whose name is withheld until official announcement of his engagement can be made. His address will be part of the auditorium exercises, which are a special feature of the annual United Presbyterian picnic.

Another special feature will be the athletic events of the day. It is aimed to make these the most noteworthy of the summer throughout the entire section represented, with a program having entries of the men who are most famous in each line of track and field events. College and university men, as well as those who have gained reputation in local athletic associations will be entered, but the entire meet will be kept strictly amateur. Valuable prizes will be awarded.

SOUSA WILL BE AT THE EXPO TWICE THIS SEASON

"March King" Closes Contracts With Management of the Coming Big Point Show.

For the first time in the history of the Pittsburgh Exposition, the coming season of which opens Wednesday evening, August 30, John Philip Sousa and his band will play a double engagement. The "March King" will be here the week of September 11-16, and then make a tour of several western cities, returning to the Exposition on October 16, where he will remain until the close of the show, October 21.

Sousa has but recently completed a most successful tour abroad. He is now resting at his summer home in the east, preparatory to opening his season of 1905-06 in Philadelphia. In his coming season's programs several surprises will be found. Several new compositions have been added to his repertoire, from his own pen, since his appearance here last season.

A suite entitled "At the King's Court" and a march, "The Diplomat," created more than favorable comment from the foreign critics. Both compositions are said to show a marked advance in command of orchestral resource while retaining the old vigor and verve who have placed the "Washington Post" and "El Capitan" among the best modern writing for the military band. Sousa's originality is a true test of his power.

What if the weather IS hot, since your investment at

Brookline

THE 15-MINUTE SUBURB

is bound to make you comfortable in the future!

To reach Brookline take the new Brookline cars anywhere on Smithfield street, or at the Union, B. & O. or P. & L. E. depots. You will go flying through the tunnel to the property. Not always in fifteen minutes while the work of building the road is going on, but without fail in fifteen minutes as soon as the second track is laid and the switches are abolished.

What do all of us find in human history? When John D. Rockefeller began his business career did he then have $550,000,000 and own powerful interests in twenty-five of the country's most gigantic industrial corporations? No! Regardless of what may be said or thought of Mr. Rockefeller, there is no getting round the fact that he worked hard in his youth and denied himself many a luxury. What for? To put by something with which to assist him to fight or strive for the destiny that is now his.

Did he go to the seashore or play golf? Not then! He defied Old Sol by staying at home and putting his "seashore money" in banks and in Cleveland real estate.

Had such a real estate masterwork as Brookline been established in Cleveland in those days, no power in existence would have kept Mr. Rockefeller from purchasing a piece of it, if we are to judge from his early investments there and his present avidity for Cleveland mortgages.

These are truths which you ought to have in mind as you look at Brookline. To acquire Brookline real estate you won't need to deny yourself a summer vacation, as Mr. Rockefeller did. We are offering the real estate of this most metropolitan and perfect suburb that was ever established, at prices and on payments which the average person can afford to part with conveniently—double-size lots, with building restrictions and modern street improvements, at $100 to $1,200—with no interest nor taxes for you to pay for two years.

These prices and terms would not be so inviting if they were not quoted on what is unquestionably the only real estate of special quality that was ever offered before on any basis except cash, or part cash and part mortgage.

No other promoters have been willing to sign over select frontage, all having first-class city improvements, and then wait for the money, pay the taxes and do without interest.

Yet with the new age that's dawning—the home-building age—there has come a time when unusual propositions must be put forward. The public expects of capital more than it used to. Realizing this, the West Liberty Improvement Company is building A COMPLETE WHITE RESIDENTIAL CITY within fifteen minutes of the Pittsburgh Postoffice.

A city which will have twenty-five miles of the finest street improvements that anybody will have ever seen. Some of the streets are being paved with Porter block manifold-layer brick, many will be paved with macadam, none will be left only graded, all will be sanitary-sewered, all will have large city water mains, all are piped with gas, all are electric lighted, and many of the sidewalks will be granolithic stone.

The electric lights at night shed a pleasing ray on the mighty work of traction building and street construction that's going on. The white surface of the granolithic stone walks seems artistic and elegant in company with the other improvements.

The great Brookline Spring on Berkshire Avenue is proving as great an attraction at night as it is during the day. People who have drank from the famous Howe Spring testify that the water of Brookline Spring is just as clear and sparkling, and perhaps colder.

AMERICUS CLUB WANTS NEW HOME

Present Quarters at Penn Avenue and Fourth Street May Go on the Market.

MORE ROOM IS BADLY NEEDED

The sale of its present home and the purchase of property and construction of a larger clubhouse are plans being discussed by the members of the Americus Republican club.

The plans will come up at a meeting next week and will probably receive final consideration at a meeting of members early in August. It is said that there is not much opposition to the project. It has come to be generally recognized that the membership of the popular organization has grown to greater proportions than can be adequately housed in the building now owned and occupied.

The home of the club is on the northwest corner of Penn avenue and Fourth street. The old building has been remodeled and kept in excellent repair, and an extensive addition was built a couple of years ago, but the growth of the club continued and still it is short of room.

It is estimated that the property will sell for close to $100,000. It has a frontage in Penn avenue of 24 feet and a depth in Fourth street of 156. The value of property in that section has been steadily growing and for a corner lot, such as the club owns, it is believed the market value now would be close to $4,000 a foot front in Penn avenue.

In anticipation of the possible action, a new site for a home has been offered to the club and an option on it secured. This site is not yet made known, but it is said to possess all the features of convenience in location which the present building gives and at the same time allows a structure considerably larger to be erected.

The club is one of Pittsburgh's best-known political and social institutions. Its activity in Republican campaigns and in the inauguration of Republican presidents has given it a national reputation.

This amount was for rental for seven months.

The agreement with the Pittsburgh Railways Company for the Tenth street bridge runs for 20 years and will give the city a total rental of $100,000. The city will receive $2,400 annually for the use of the Smithfield street bridge.

Paul used a pencil to start the fan and his hand coming in contact with it he could not withdraw it. He fell to the floor, the fan falling on him. Paul had heart disease and the weak current of 110 volts paralyzed him. He died in a few minutes. He was a traveling salesman for a Pittsburgh drug firm.

Persch yesterday were arraigned for a hearing in the Tombs court, New York, on a charge of passing worthless checks on firms there and were held in $6,000 bail each for further examination on July 18. The men have passed worthless checks on firms in this city and in Philadelphia.

Detective Superintendent McQuaide refused to reveal the names of Persch's victims in this city, although he has been assured of the identity of Persch, who is under arrest. However, it is not thought Persch and Klous will be brought to this city for trial, as they have over a score of cases to face in the New York courts.

MUST PAY BIG SUM INTO TREASURY TODAY

Second Installment Due Government from National Banks Is $11,000,000.

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, July 14.—In accordance with the terms of the call of Secretary Shaw on national banks which are government depositories, the banks must pay $11,000,000 into the treasury tomorrow. In the opinion of the officials of the treasury department the money market will not feel the loss of this sum materially. It is believed that 75 per cent if not all this sum will at once go into national bank circulation. That was true of the sum paid into the treasury by the banks under the first installment of the call.

Secretary Shaw's call was for 20 per cent of all of the government deposits. It was divided into two parts, payable January 15 and July 1. The time for the payment of the second installment was extended to July 15, but the full amount cannot be received from the sub-treasuries before Tuesday or Wednesday of next week.

Under the first payment required by the call $13,500,000 was received by the treasury and later $4,500,000 was paid in by banks in anticipation of the second installment. The total call figures up $29,000,000, which will be made up by the $11,000,000 due tomorrow.

Its capacity is 1,000,000 tons annually, which will be gradually increased.

TRACTION CAR GRINDS OFF LITTLE GIRL'S LEGS

Accident Happens at Busy South Side Corner and Mother Becomes Frantic at Sight.

Cecila Ozakoski, aged 11, of No. 2611 Sidney street, was struck by a car in Carson street, at the corner of South Twentieth street, yesterday afternoon and horribly crushed about the legs. She was picked up perfectly conscious and while awaiting an ambulance her mother rushed upon the scene and made frantic efforts to carry off her child. It required the combined efforts of several men to prevent this and allow the child to be taken to the South Side hospital, where she died at 10 o'clock last night.

William H. Lewis of Lincoln place died yesterday at the Homeopathic hospital, following an operation. Death was caused by paralysis of the heart. LOCAL ELKS RETURN.

Believe That Awards in the Band Contest Were Unfair.

Nearly all members of the Allegheny county delegation of Elks who attended the reunion in Buffalo during the past week returned yesterday morning well pleased with the general treatment received, but dissatisfied with the band contest awards.

The Mexican band of 75 pieces, which accompanied the El Paso (Tex.) lodge, was awarded first prize, while the Second Brigade band of Pittsburgh, under the leadership of Prof. Peter Dannhardt, was given second honors. Protests were filed that the Mexican band was not eligible, not being members of the American Federation of Musicians, and that the official program only permitted bands belonging to that order to enter the parade. It was further contended that the award was made because of volume rather than merit, the Pittsburgh band having but 37 pieces.

Finds Burglar's Kit in Woods.

William Dramble, an employe on the county roads, while going to work yesterday morning found a large bundle in the woods back of Perrysville containing what is supposed to be a kit of burglar tools. In the package were a large stiletto, ratchet, a drill and several cold chisels. Dramble took the package to the Allegheny police station. Detective Leon Einstein went out to the place where the tools were found, but could not find an owner for them.

VIOLATIONS ARE MANY IN LOST WORD HUNT

Contestants Who Fail to Keep Within the Simple Rules Have Returns Excluded.

Prize winners in the word hunt through the advertising columns of The Gazette will be announced in tomorrow's issue of this paper. Examination of the returns show that there will be numerous disappointments, for which the sufferers will have themselves to blame.

Although repeated warning had been given that the contest would close promptly at 9 o'clock Thursday morning and that no returns would be admissable after that hour, a goodly number of returns were received after that time, while some arrived as late as Friday. The rules of the hunt allow contestants four days in which to work out their selections, which time seems reasonable, and The Gazette proposes, as heretofore, to carry out to the letter without fear or favor, every rule governing contests of whatever nature.

While the greater number of returns in the contest just closed showed increasing interest it can be said to the credit of contestants that violations of the rule restricting competitors to the use of one letter but four times in the full four words were not as numerous as in the previous contest, although there were many flagrant violations and those guilty were, of course, excluded from the competition.

Another instance of carelessness which will cause many disappointments when the final results of the contest are made known, was found in the fact that many competitors erred in their additions. To check up the figures as they appear upon the returns is probably the most arduous work of the force of examiners, but efforts so applied since the contest closed brought to the surface many errors.

Upon the evidence that interest in these contests is not only being maintained but is increasing, another word hunt will be conducted with the advertising column of tomorrow's paper as a basis for competition. Thirteen prizes, aggregating $50, will again be awarded to the most successful, and to those who obey the rules as they will appear in tomorrow's issue. Moral: Read the rules.

Snyder, United States consul general at Bogota, Colombia, has transmitted to the department of commerce and labor a translation of a decree issued on March 3 by the president of the republic, which makes the production and sale of certain articles sources of national revenue.

GOTHAM GLADLY WELCOMES SCOTTY

Wall Street Goes Wild Over Erratic Western Miner When He Visits the Exchange.

MEETS CARNEGIE'S NEPHEW.

The Pittsburgh Gazette Bureau, Herald Building, Herald Square. NEW YORK, July 14.

"Jest to do a little prospectin' fer pleasure havin' heard 'twas here in big nuggets an' thought I'd look the ground over. No, I ain't thinkin' of stakin' any claim here. Ma is comin' on today an' we'll give the village a few hours' whirl fer our money."

This was the explanation given for his visit to New York today by Walter Scott, the miner of Death valley, when he landed at the Grand Central station on the Twentieth Century limited.

The news of his arrival attracted a huge crowd and before he could reach an electric hansom which whirled him south to the Herald Square, where he is to make his headquarters, a squad of police had to clear a way for him. On the steps of the station he consented to pose for pictures by an army of photographers. As he came up the platform he was visibly abashed by the crowd and flushed like a schoolboy through his tanned skin.

Scotty caused a riot in the financial district this afternoon by his presence there. He had eluded great crowds uptown by flitting about from one hotel to another in an automobile hansom. He bought wine and paid for it from a roll of $1,000 bills in the Grand hotel, the Herald Square and the Waldorf-Astoria.

Then after visiting Third Vice President Gerard of the Knickerbocker Trust Company, he made a flying trip down to Wall street in his automobile. As his automobile drew up at the curb at the stock exchange and he went in, the onlookers recognized the miner and a shout of "Scotty" rang up through the building. Soon every structure was spouting men, women and office boys. As "Scotty" came out they surged in a dense mass about the westerner, trying to shake hands and urging him to throw out his gold. He finally escaped to Broadway.

He held a reception in the Herald Square hotel this afternoon and then went to the Waldorf-Astoria, where he was welcomed in the cafe and was introduced to a nephew of Andrew Carnegie and others.

This Was the Decision Arrived at by Methodist Ministers Meeting of Danville District.

[Special Telegram to The Gazette.]

WILKESBARRE, PA., July 14.—A number of Methodist ministers of the northeast Danville district, meeting at Berwick today, decided that it was right to accept unlawfully acquired money for the church and its various benevolences.

The Rev. R. H. Gilbert of Berwick declared that it was far better for the church to have such money and apply it to Christian education and missionary purposes than to allow it to remain in the hands of sinners who might apply it again to unlawful schemes.

Two of the ministers, the Rev. R. Emley of Beach Haven and the Rev. Walter Phillips of Waller, declared that saloonkeepers were more liberal contributors to church funds than members of the congregations.

Roscoe is across the Muskingum river from this city. There are no saloons in Roscoe and most of the women are vigorous temperance workers. When they learned that young men of the village had organized a "club" for drinking purposes they planned the raid. Armed with hatchets they marched on the club's room. ABSOLUTE SECURITY

The first and greatest consideration in any financial contract is SECURITY

Why do Government bonds, earning only 4%, sell at a premium of 15 to 20%, while many other bonds earning 6% sell below par? Security.

Why have Government 4% Bonds been subscribed for many times over while other bonds promising 6 and 7% could not be sold at any price? Security.

Absolute Security should be rigidly demanded on a contract of life assurance which may extend for 20 years or more, and upon which the whole future of your family may depend—

Equitable Policies are the Government bonds of Life Assurance—
—The only Policies in the world that have a surplus of eighty million dollars back of them.

HANS WAGNER DISPLAYED MARVELOUS SKILL AT BROOKLYN YESTERDAY

BATTING RALLY SAVES PIRATES

Take After Stricklett's Spit Ball in Eighth Inning and Score Enough Runs to Win.

GREAT WORK BY WAGNER

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, July 14.—Taking the first game of the series from Brooklyn today, at Washington park, 4 to 2, through a fine batting rally in the eighth inning the Pirates are now prepared to go up against harder game in the shape of the champion Giants at the Polo grounds, with whom they begin a four-game series tomorrow.

It was a nip-and-tuck struggle this afternoon, with the result in doubt until the retirement of the last head in the ninth inning. Stricklett, the father of the "Camp fling," pitched for the Superbas and should have received better treatment from his team mates, but his support wabbled all through the fray, and the only wonder was that Pittsburgh did not roll up a bigger total.

Hans Wagner scintillated at short for the visitors. The big fellow had a field day, and there was nothing sent his direction he did not reach. In all he accepted 14 chances without a semblance of an error, ranging from easy to difficult. His work easily was the star feature of the game. Case, after yesterday's disaster, pitched splendid ball, and his support was free from flaw or blemish. Leach played center in place of Beaumont.

The visitors scored in the breakaway. After Clymer and Clarke were disposed of, Leach beat out a bunt and stole second. Wagner reached first safe on Batch's bad throw. Leach by a magnificent dash crossed the plate. Wagner reached third on a bad throw of Gessler to Lewis trying to catch Honus between the bases. Howard ended the inning by going out at first.

This was the only tally the Pirates made until the eighth inning, when they located Stricklett's offering and gathered in three runs. After Clymer had been fanned, Clarke beat out an infield hit. Leach followed this with a clean single to right. Wagner scored Clarke and Leach on a long double to center. Howard kept up the cannonading by laying down a nice bunt safe. He was forced by Brain, Lewis to Malay, Wagner scoring. Brain stole second. Ritchey walked and stole second, Brain going to third. Peitz ended the inning by fouling out to Batch.

The locals' first run was made in the second inning. Gessler hit safely to right for a base. He reached third on two outs. Ritter got another hit, on which Gessler scored. After this Brooklyn could do nothing with Case until the eighth inning, when they scored another run. Score:

Cincinnati 4—Boston 3.

BOSTON, July 14.—In one of the most sensational finishes ever seen on a local ball field Cincinnati won today's game 4 to 3. With Boston runners on third and first and none out in the ninth inning Abbattichio hit to Corcoran, whose throw to Huggins forced Wilhelm at second, Huggins threw home to head off Moran. He started back for third, but was out when Schlei snapped the ball to Steinfeldt. A wonderful triple play was completed when Steinfeldt threw to Huggins, who tagged Abbattichio. It was the second triple play made this week in games between Boston and Cincinnati, and the fourth play of the kind ever made on league grounds in this city. Score:

COLLEGIANS LOSE AGAIN.

Too Much Bathing Took Life Out of Pittsburgh Boys.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., July 14.—The Pittsburgh Collegians fought the waves all morning, but were unsuccessful in their argument with Atlantic City Collegians in the afternoon. The Pittsburghers were beaten 11 to 4. Atlantic City hit the ball hard and consecutively. Don Doyle started pitching for Pittsburgh, but retired in the fifth. A blistered arm and too much bathing made him docile. Russell was sent in, but he fared little better. The Pittsburghers started off finely, Moffit and Price beating out hunts. O'Fiefer singled and McCracken walloped and made three bases. The Pittsburghers did well in the field, Zoch and Price making fine stops and throws. The score:

VERY SCRAPPY GAME.

McKeesport Defeats Sharon—Manager Killen Sent to the Bench.

McKeesport defeated Sharon easily yesterday 8 to 1. Doherty was as wild as a March hare and passed eight men, giving four passes on balls in the second in succession after two men had been retired. Manager Killen was benched in the first inning and Ferguson was sent from the lines in the eighth. It was a scrappy game all the way, Sharon kicking on almost every decision by Umpire Kress. Forkum and Brent almost came together in the sixth. Score:

Washington Won in Ninth.

WASHINGTON, PA., July 14.—Washington won a spectacular game from Steubenville here tonight in the ninth inning 4 to 3. REYMER LEAVES ESTATE IN TRUST

Establishes a Fund of $20,000 for a Son Shortly After His Marriage.

HUSBAND HAS HIS TROUBLES

Jacob S. Reymer, whose will has just been made public by his executors, the Commonwealth Trust Company and Attorney Leander Trautman, leaves an estate estimated at nearly half a million dollars, and most of it will be handled by the executors as trust funds.

Samuel S. Reymer, a son, whose marriage to a carnival dancer was published a few months ago, is cut off with the income from $20,000, which is to be subject neither to debts nor contracts of any kind. Mr. Reymer took this action a few days after his son's marriage. The son also gets a gold watch, given the testator by his brother Philip, which he hopes his son will hold as a sacred trust.

Mr. Reymer leaves to his widow, Lydia Reymer, his home in Fayette street, Allegheny, its furnishment and one-third of his personal estate. To his daughter, Anna, he gives $25,000; to a niece, Cornelia M. Campbell, and a nephew, P. Reymer Morris, $500 each; to the Allegheny cemetery, $1,000 to care for the Reymer lot.

The residue of the estate is to be invested and the income paid to his widow, and at her death it goes to her daughter. He recommends that the executors be allowed to handle his business, sell the real estate and sell or hold the personal property as they see fit. The $50,000 left in trust for his son goes to the residuary estate in case of the son's death.

Husband Has Many Grievances.

Thomas F. McDonough in his suit for divorce from Charlotte E. McDonough alleges a volume of reasons. He says his wife constantly nagged at him, has a temper, called him names, threatened to kill him, taught their children to disobey and revile him by false charges of ill-treatment by him got her brother to assault him, frequently refused to get him his meals, frequently refused to attend to her household duties, falsely accused him of unfaithfulness, once struck him with a frying pan, and told him when he was ill it was good for him. Concluding his list of alleged acts of his wife, he says she frequently told him she did not love him, that she hated him and loved another, and that she wanted him to leave her. He alleges she said he was a coward not to apply for a divorce.

Charles Adlam was convicted and Thomas Watkins acquitted of violation of the pure food laws. Both defendants conducted hotels at Homestead and were alleged to have served oleomargarine at their tables and were tried jointly. Galiant testifies he had purchased his butter from a dairy company and did not know it was oleomargarine. Watkins said he had bought the butter served at his hotel from a farmer, and the jury evidently thought this exonerated him from blame, as they placed the costs in his case to Special Agent E. D. Miller of the state pure food commission, who was the prosecutor.

Asks for a New Trial.

An application has been made for a new trial in the case of E. J. Bechdel of the National Investment Company, who was convicted of a misdemeanor in conducting business under a Delaware charter, without registering in Pennsylvania, as required by law. The application states that the court erred in several instances and that the verdict should have been one of acquittal.

John Schuetz wants the Pittsburgh Natatorium to pay him $2,000 damages. He avers that on May 14, 1905, while entering the natatorium in Duquesne way, a window screen fell from the second story of the building and struck him on the thigh.

Henry Wilhelm had scapias issued for the arrest of H. W. Ireneus, whom he had sued for $2,000 damages. Wilhelm alleges that on January 30, the defendant had him arrested on a charge of libel, but the grand jury ignored the charge and placed the costs on the prosecutor.

A statement of facts was filed by Judge Hawkins in the matter of the estate of James Vadt on the claim of Mrs. Bostock, wife of J. W. Bostock, proprietor of a merry-go-round. An agreement was claimed whereby if the Bostocks would move into Vadt's house and take care of them he would will them the estate, which he failed to do. Mrs. Bostock made a claim for boarding, and attendance on the decedent. The court refuses to allow this claim under this alleged agreement. The case took a week to try. Attorneys O. S. Richardson and H. H. Negley represented the estate.

The next sessions of the United States court will open in Erie at 2 p. m. on Monday.

AT BAY IN COURT.

Young Boy Fought All Who Came Near Him When Ordered Returned to Parents.

Jerome Leibhart, aged 13, whose parents live at 90 Southern avenue, by refusing to return home when ordered to do so by Judge Evans and fighting all who attempted to remove him by force, created considerable excitement during the session of juvenile court yesterday. Young Leibhart was charged with being incorrigible by his father, George W. Leibhart, who claimed the boy was unmanagable and should be sent to Morganza. As the boy did not appear to be vicious, from the elder Leibhart's story, Judge Evans wanted to know what means the father had taken to correct him.

"Oh, I have beaten him often," said Leibhart. "I beat him three times during the last year."

Judge Evans said he would not send the boy to Morganza, and ordered him returned to his parents.

The boy, who had appeared unconcerned as to his fate up to this point, set up an awful howl and refused point blank to return home. His parents tried to quiet him and get him out of the courtroom, without success. Young Leibhart caught hold of chairs, railings or anything that he could anchor to and kicked and fought any person who came near him. He had the courtroom in an uproar when Judge Evans ordered Probation Officer Alice B. Montgomery to return him to the detention rooms at the jail, where he had already been confined two weeks.

CIGARS CAN NOW BE BOUGHT ON SUNDAYS

Superior Court Justice Also Decides That an Ice Plant Is a Mill.

Prothonotary George Pearson yesterday received a number of opinions handed down by the superior court in Western Pennsylvania cases. One case from Delaware county is especially interesting, because it shows that the blue laws are being gradually stretched to permit dealers to sell articles heretofore not considered necessities. Cigars come under the ice and milk list, and it is now lawful to buy and sell them on Sundays. Judge W. D. Porter decided that selling cigars on Sunday does not constitute a breach of the peace. Addison Foster of Delaware county, on the charge of repeatedly violating the Sunday laws of 1794 by selling soft drinks and cigars, was held by the local justice under bonds to keep the peace. The superior court discharged Mr. Foster.

The relations existing between an agent and a real estate owner are discussed in plain terms in an opinion handed down by Judge Orlady. The matter came up in the case of E. D. Fulton vs. Mary A. Walters, an appeal from Fayette county, in which Fulton received a verdict. Fulton sued for $600, claiming that he had an agreement to receive that amount and all over $270 an acre for some land he was to sell for Walters. The opinion says that he eventually sold it for $287.50 an acre. Judge Orlady says it was his duty to disclose all the facts to Walters. Fulton returned the sale at $275, deliberately concealing from the owner that he and one Martin were acting together to secure a large price. His entire allegiance was to Walters, and when he admitted receiving pay from another his allegiance was divided and his right to recover from Walters ceased. It is an axiom, the opinion says, that an agent to sell cannot become an agent to buy. It matters not that no fraud was intended, it is against the policy of the law that such artifice should be successful. In the course of the opinion Judge Orlady says:

"No broker, agent or middleman can recover for services which uncover double dealings or secret dealings with some of the principals. . . . Perfect good faith must be shown to warrant a recovery for services." The judgment of the lower court is reversed and judgment entered for the defendant.

Rules for the guidance of drivers are laid down in an opinion in the case of the Houston Pros. Company vs. the Consolidated Traction Company. A driver for the plaintiff with a three-horse team drove onto Butler street from Forty-ninth street. A car struck the team and suit for damages was entered, the traction company winning in the lower court. That judgment is affirmed. The supreme court holds that if a man in driving a four, eight or 12-horse team it does not relieve him of taking all reasonable precautions, and in this case it was evident that the driver left the duty of avoiding a collision to the motorman.

According to the superior court an ice factory is a mill. Kuntz Bros. & Co. furnished engine for an engine foundation, to a contractor doing work for the Consolidated Ice Company. Later they attempted to place a mechanics' lien on the building, and common pleas court No. 2 decided they had no right to take such action. An appeal was taken and the lower court was reversed. In an opinion by Judge Beaver it is held that an ice factory comes under the designation of "mills" as used in the act of 1836 and its supplement of 1858. The engine was essential to furnish power to run the factory, and the foundation was essential to the engine. On these grounds the lower court is reversed.

The question of street railway transfers is to be threshed over again in common pleas court No. 1. W. A. Golden, an attorney, tendered a transfer on October 14 last and was put off, the conductor saying it was not good after midnight. Golden sued the Pittsburgh Railways Company for damages and was given a compulsory non-suit. He appealed and the superior court awarded him a new trial. Golden claims he received the transfer before midnight, that three cars refused to stop for him, and he took the first car he could, which was the one from which he was ejected.

In the electric shock case in which Robert H. Whaley was given a verdict against the Citizens National bank of New Castle, the common pleas court of Lawrence county has been sustained. Whaley was knocked down by coming in contact with a brass railing in front of the bank window, to which an electric battery had been attached. The superior court brushes aside a defense that the janitor had been cautioned not to turn on the current, and says that a man cannot so manage a nuisance created by himself so as to escape damages because he was careful in operating it.

An opinion in the Flannigan will case was written by Judge Morrison. The point at issue was whether John Koehler, who operated Flannigan's blacksmith shop in Lawrenceville for the administrator, was entitled to $604.38, the profit under his management, and $900 which he paid for the shop before it was learned that Flannigan had left him the shop. The orphans' court awarded him both amounts, but the superior court says he was not entitled to the profits, and they must go into the residuary estate.

GREAT ACTORS IN A NEW COMBINE

Old Theatrical Syndicate Will Meet With Opposition in Many Cities.

LEASING STRING OF HOUSES

The verification of the forecast in The Gazette of Thursday, July 8, of an independent theatrical combination, was made in New York yesterday by the announcement by Lee Shubert that details had been completed for an organization to work against what is known as the theatrical trust.

The leading companies in the new combination are headed by David Belasco and Mrs. Minnie Maddern Fiske. Lee Shubert will manage the line of theaters which will be placed at the disposal of Mr. Belasco, Mrs. Fiske and others.

The new combine will back 15 companies on the road and such actors as Sarah Bernhardt, Ada Rehan, Jefferson DeAngelis, Henry Miller, Lillian Russell, David Warfield, Blanche Bates, Bertha Galland, Robert Hilliard, Mrs. Fiske, Bertha Kalisch and Mrs. Leslie Carter. These under the new management expect, within another week, to have a sufficient number of theaters on their own circuit in America and England to play in the year round.

Mr. Shubert announced yesterday that his company now has 14 play houses under its control, including theaters in New York, Philadelphia, Chicago, St. Louis and London, England, and that he would within a week be able to open about half a dozen more theaters to his attractions, among them a house in Boston.

In a statement given out for publication yesterday afternoon Mr. Shubert announced he intended to sue the firm of Klaw & Erlanger and "Al." Hayman for violation of contract.

Flowers for Pittsburgh Children.

The enrollment in the Pittsburgh summer playgrounds and vacation schools yesterday was over 3,000, and 2,450 bouquets were distributed by the flower committee among the children in seven schools, those in the O'Hara and Andrew schools being provided by friends of the committees in those playgrounds. The flower committee, with Mrs. Minnie Ourey Roberts, chairman, met at the Central Young Women's Christian association yesterday morning at 8 o'clock and found a great abundance of flowers on hand for them. They were ready for the distribution yesterday, which was made as follows: Ralston school, 200 bouquets; Washington Park, 376; Moorhead, 280, South school, 250; Greendield, 225; Riverside, 250, and the South Side recreation park and playgrounds, 1,000, while a number of other bouquets were distributed among the children on Herron Hill.

Besides the daisies sent in by the girls and boys of West Pittsburgh, there were immense baskets filled with nasturtiums and sweet peas. Two boxes of roses and carnations were received from the private conservatories of Alexander R. Peacock, two large boxes of flowers were sent from the Phipps conservatory in Schenley park, and there were many individual contributors from all parts of the city and from the suburbs.

CHAUTAUQUA

CHAUTAUQUA, N. Y., July 14.—(Special.)—The members of the band and orchestra arrived only yesterday, and the first concert was properly appreciated. At the Women's club brief reports of the different clubs were given, 38 clubs from nearly every part of the country being represented. Prof. George E. Vincent gave his last lecture in the summer schools convocation and had his usual large audience when he talked of "The Child Group." Dr. Lincoln Hulley conducted the last devotional hour of the week and spoke on "Christ's Appeal to Men."

Admirers of Robert Louis Stevenson enjoyed Prof. Troop's lecture, in which he dwelt upon the versatility and power of that unusual and beloved writer. Barge Stage the Rivermen Looked for Did Not Arrive.

The barge stage rivermen were looking for yesterday did not arrive. The river reached a stage of a little over seven feet and then commenced falling. It makes beautiful packet water, however, and the passenger and freight boats are enjoying an unusually prosperous season.

The Greenland arrived from Charleston yesterday morning. Mrs. Mary B. Greene, captain of the packet, left the boat at Newport, O., and is visiting there with her family.

The Lorena arrived yesterday from Zanesville and will leave today for Muskingum river ports. She brought down a number of Zanesville people who are making the round trip to Pittsburgh on a sightseeing and shopping tour.

The Columbia was the Morgantown boat in yesterday. The J. C. Woodward will take out the crowd today for that port. The Woodward already has a large passenger list and the boat will be crowded when she leaves this afternoon. Tomorrow morning the Columbia will be the up boat and a lot of excursionists will take advantage of the dollar rate and make the round trip.

Escapes from Hospital.

The Allegheny police were asked yesterday to look for a man named Hutchinson who escaped from the St. Johns General hospital. According to the story told to the police the man has been treated for several weeks for alcoholism and was in no condition to leave the institution. The police had not located him late last night.

Benefit for South Side Hospital.

The Ladies' Aid society of the South Side hospital and the United Presbyterian Women's association are almost alone among the organizations to have good weather conditions this season. Yesterday afternoon and evening the Aid society of the hospital held its annual lawn fete in Southern park. There was a big attendance during the afternoon which was increased in the evening. The booths were arranged attractively about the grounds directly within the entrance and about the ice cream pavilion. Supper was served in the dining pavilion where the tables were prettily decorated with flowers. The booths were presided over by committees of young women who rapidly disposed of their wares. The various chairmen include the following: General chairman, Mrs. M. F. Hutchins; dining-room, Mrs. Daniel Beech; ice-cream, Mrs. Agnew and Mrs. C. E. Peck; common sense and fancy work, Mrs. Moore and Mrs. Orcutt; cigars, Mrs. George Gearing; fish pond, Miss Bessie Hare; Japanese booth, Mrs. McGrew and Miss Pitt; refreshments, Mrs. Donnelly and Mrs. Stubbs; gate committee, Mrs. Redman, Mrs. Elizabeth Beech and Miss Hare.

Visiting the Portland Fair.

Mrs. Edwin Lare and her daughter, Miss Adelaide Lare, left this week for Colorado Springs, the Yellowstone park and the Portland fair. They had been stopping at the Elmhurst inn, in Sewickley, for several weeks since giving up their home in Allegheny, and will spend the rest of the summer and the autumn in travel. After visiting the exposition in Portland, Ore., they will travel through California and return to Pittsburgh late in the fall.

Inaugurate Golf Teas.

The first of a series of afternoon golf teas will be given this afternoon at the Brighton Country club of Allegheny. Light refreshments will be served on the verandas of the clubhouse under the direction of the ladies of the entertainment committee, and there will also be a handicap sweepstake golf tournament for the club members. In the evening there will be music at the clubhouse for the last of a series of moonlight dances which will be given during the summer months.

MYSTERIOUS POWER

—OF—

PANOPATHIC PROFESSOR HEALS HOPELESS INVALIDS.

Patients Given Up by Their Physicians and Pronounced Good as

DEAD ARE RESCUED FROM THE GRAVE

And Restored to Life and Health by This Man, Who Says There Is No Disease He May Not Cure.

MAKES HUMAN HEART BEAT AGAIN

In Body of Woman Threatened With Burial.

Abandons Private Practice and Useless Drugs and Gives Service and Home Treatment to the Sick and Afflicted.

NEW YORK, July 13.—(Special Correspondence.)—Wallace Hadley, the famous Professor of Panopathy and Physanctics, has again demonstrated his mysterious power over disease. He shows that the drugs prescribed by doctors and the surgeon's knife are often worse than useless, and by healing hundreds of hopeless invalids pronounced incurable by physicians he proves his claims that there is no disease he may not cure. In defiance of the supposed laws and rules of modern medical practice and the theories of physicians and specialists, he has made the human heart beat again in the body of a woman prepared for the grave and performed other seeming miracles of restoration to life and health of men and women, given up to death. Indeed, he succeeds in the face of such apparent impossibilities that he appears to possess a healing power unequaled in either ancient or modern times—a power above and beyond that given to ordinary mortals. In comparison, the successful operations of the world's greatest specialists become insignificant child's play. Apparently the supposedly incurable diseases, such as paralysis, consumption, heart disease, cancer, deafness, etc., are cured by him just as easily as the more common disorders. Professor Hadley will further, he has proved that he can cure patients in their own homes, thousands of miles away, just as quickly and surely as though they came to him in person. To extend the blessing of this wonderful power to mankind, there remained but one thing for him to do, and that he has done by abandoning his private practice and offering his services free of charge to all who stand in need. He is quoted as saying that he feels it his religious duty to help the sick and afflicted, independent of any reward.

"One of the cases that makes possible the belief that Prof. Hadley's power approaches supernatural control over disease even to the point of death is that of a Mr. E. C. Bess of El Campo, Texas, who was rescued from the grave after the doctors had given him up to die, could do nothing to revive him and left him for dead. Brought to this condition by the combined attack of kidney and liver disease, dropsy and acute articular rheumatism, he suffered the torments of the damned and was almost insane with pain before the end came. The doctors and Chiefs medicines failed utterly. Although he was as good as dead when Prof. Hadley's attention was called to his case, he was speedily restored to life and health by this panopath's marvelous power, though even Mr. Bess himself confesses that he does not know exactly how this miracle was performed. Another case, almost equally remarkable, was that of a Mrs. J. C. Whitfield of Norfolk, Va., who asserts that he revived the vital spark in her body when she was prepared for the grave, that at the end of a long siege of illness from a complication of diseases her body felt cold and lifeless. But she says that Prof. Hadley made her heart beat again, the blood flow through her veins once more and warmth return to her wasted body. Naturally she looks upon her rescue and restoration to health as passing understanding. Prof. Hadley saved the life of Charles W. Miller of Columbia Furnace, Va., when threatened with a deadly cancer, without the use of a knife or burning. He restored to perfect health Mrs. M. Worthington of Center Square, Pa., a woman who had been an invalid for twenty-five years from complicated female troubles; many long months bedridden in hospitals, and who had been pronounced incurable and given up to die by all her physicians. Yet these are only random instances selected from among the hundreds where Prof. Hadley's almost miraculous power has made the bonds of disease fall away as if they were broken chains, and restored health and happiness to suffering men and women.

Naturally the announcement that a man of such wonderful ability to heal will hereafter give services and home treatment free to all who ask is most sensational and far-reaching in its effects, since it gives everyone throughout the country, the poor as well as the rich, an equal opportunity to be cured by availing themselves of this philanthropic offer made by one of the greatest scientists of the age. And it is the more remarkable and fortunate in view of the fact that there is no disease he may not cure.

When questioned in regard to his abandonment of private practice in order to devote himself to the new line of work for humanity, Prof. Hadley said:

"Yes, it is true; but I intend to go on curing anyone who is ill of any disease they may have, just as long as I am able. Indeed, where I cured hundreds before, I expect to cure thousands hereafter, since now neither wealth nor poverty makes any difference in my accepting patients. I have become convinced as a Christian it is my duty to help the sick and afflicted wherever they may be, whoever they are and whatever their circumstances."

"But how about those at a distance?"

"Distance makes no difference. I can cure those thousands of miles away just as easily as those who come to my office. A letter does just as much good as if I went to them or they came to me."

"Do you really mean that anyone who is sick can write to you to be cured, without paying you any money?"

"Exactly. I mean just that. All that anyone who is ill from any cause has to do in order to enlist my services is to write to me, addressing Wallace Hadley, M. D., office 1622X—No. 225

MT. WASHINGTON, Pr

STOCKS WERE LESS ACTIVE, BUT CLOSED FAIRLY FIRM

Dealings Were Congested in a Few Specialties by Large Operators—In the Local Market Fire Proofing Common Had a Bad Break.

By JOHN O. BAGLIN, Financial Editor.

The New York stock market was less active yesterday, the transactions for the first half of the session falling below 275,000 shares and the total for the day approximating 520,000 shares. There was considerable irregularity to prices, but at the close the tone was steady to firm.

The principal feature of the market was the congestion of business in a few specialties which were handled in large blocks by houses which represent the leaders of the speculation. Initial prices were higher, based upon the strength of the quotations received from London, but an early decline occurred on the marketing of between 40,000 and 50,000 shares of various stocks which was supposed to represent liquidation by the western group of operators. One house sold 10,000 shares U. S. Steel common and an equal amount of Union Pacific. Another house was a heavy seller of St. Paul and Illinois Central. A trader whose operations in the Harriman stocks are regarded as significant, was a large buyer of Union Pacific, Southern Pacific and U. S. Steel common. It seemed to be a little singular that the heavy selling orders were matched by equally heavy buying orders, and that the business on both sides of the market was confined to a comparatively few hands. At the same time commission houses were complaining of dullness and saying that the public was doing nothing.

Industrial stocks held relatively better than the railroads, and with the exception of Tennessee Coal & Iron and Amalgamated Copper, closed higher. J. P. Morgan & Co. and Standard Oil interests were reported to be very bullish on Steel common, and preliminary estimates of the earnings to be reported in the official statement on the 25th inst., were very optimistic. A feature of the late dealings was an advance in Smelting common, which closed 1¼ per cent higher.

The railroad list was favorably affected at the close by the strength displayed by Reading common, which was heavily bought by the Wasserman pool and recovered part of its dividend.

The news of the day was not influential, except as it related to the crops and affected the wheat market. From the spring-wheat belt the tenor of advices was the direct opposite to that of a few days ago. Ideal weather conditions were reported from the northwest, and the decline in wheat indicated that traders were abandoning the bull side of that cereal.

The money market remained featureless, call loans closing at 2 to 2½ per cent. The estimates on today's bank statement placed the gain in cash at between $3,500,000 and $4,000,000. While the banks will pay over to the treasury today $15,000,000, representing the return of government deposits, the expenditures of the government are running ahead of the receipts, thus offsetting the withdrawal of money through the repayment of deposits.

The local stock market was active and irregular, the tone at the close being depressed by the break in National Fire Proofing common, which sold down to the lowest price of the year and closed at the lowest. The stock was offered down vainly after selling at 9, a block of 500 shares being offered at 8½. There were sales at 8¾ to 8⅜, and at the close it was offered at 8¼. The preferred stock rallied to 33⅜, but at the close 33 was the best bid. The formal announcement of a bond issue by an underlying company, the principal guaranteed by the National Fire Proofing company, was responsible for the weakness in the stock. Pittsburgh Coal preferred rallied to 58¼ on buying by New York, but subsequently reacted to and closed at 57¼, a net gain of ½ per cent. The common closed ¼ higher at 13¾. U. S. Steel common was quite active, 1,115 shares changing hands at 33⅞ to 34¼, the close being unchanged from the day before. The preferred was dull at 101½. Crucible Steel common sold at 10½ and the preferred at 63¾ to 63¾. Independent Brewing common declined to 14⅝, while the preferred rallied to 40. Pittsburgh Brewing common declined to 26, while the bonds rallied to 31⅝. Westinghouse Air Brake declined a point to 146, and American Sewer Pipe, after selling at 36, was offered at 35¾, a loss of 1¼ per cent. Ohio Tonopah was lower, while Tonopah Extension advanced to $5 60, and United Copper closed at 29 bid, the highest yet quoted.

FEATURES OF THE DAY

IN PITTSBURGH

Stock market active and irregular, prices closing about steady.

National Fire Proofing common broke to and closed offered at 8¼.

Pittsburgh Coal preferred rallied to 58¼, but reacted to 57¾.

Steel common was active, but closed unchanged for the day.

United Copper advanced to and closed at 29 bid, a new high record.

IN WALL STREET

Industrial stocks held relatively firmer than the railroads.

Trading was less active, but the close was steady to firm.

Sales included 535,700 shares stock and $2,004,000 bonds.

Union and Southern Pacific was the most active of the railroads.

Smelting closed higher, but Amalgamated Copper lost ⅛.

NOTES AND COMMENT.

The break in National Fire Proofing common occurred just before the close of the market. The stock had been selling in a small way at 9, when Marlin offered a block of 500 shares at that price. There was a drop to 8¾, followed by a recovery to 8⅞, and then another decline to 8⅜, the market closing with 8¼ asked and no bid. The preferred was also heavy and closed at 33 bid. The effect of the declaration of the preferred dividend was offset by the announcement that the company has a floating debt of $1,460,000, and that to liquidate this and increase the working capital an issue of $2,500,000 bonds will be made by the Federal Clay Manufacturing Company, an underlying property, the principal and interest to be guaranteed by the National Fire Proofing Company. It has been known for some time past that a bond issue was contemplated, but the amount decided upon is much larger than any sum mentioned in the current gossip.

The rumors circulated in Wall street of an impending reorganization of the Pittsburgh Coal Company was not taken seriously by the market. On the contrary, the stock rallied both here and in New York and closed higher for the day. Just before the close here 57¾ was bid for 1,000 shares of the preferred.

A small lot of Monongahela Water stock changed hands at 39½, which was unchanged from the last previous sale.

There were no transactions in Westinghouse Electric on the local exchange, and prices were nominally unchanged. Westinghouse Air Brake declined a dollar a share to 146 and a small lot of Switch and Signal changed hands at 81, a decline of $2 from the last previous sale.

United States Steel common was quite active in the local market, but closed unchanged for the day. All the Wall street gossip on the stock is bullish, and there is talk that the price will reach 40 before the 25th inst., on which date the quarterly statement of earnings is due.

With the exception of Ohio Tonopah, local mining stocks quoted on the exchange were strong and higher. United Copper closed at 29 bid, and sold as high as 30 in the Boston market, the highest yet quoted. Tonopah Extension advanced to $5 60, and Luster to 24½. Private transactions in Golden Anchor were reported at 80 to 82½ cents, and 81 cents was bid for 500 shares at the close of the market.

Details of the American Steel Foundries' financial plan will be made public next week. It it involves a bond issue of $3,000,000, of which amount $1,000,000 will be used to pay off $1,000,000 loan involved in the acquisition of the Simplex Railway Appliance Company.

A Philadelphia dispatch says: There is a good deal of interest in the central west over the formation of the Vandalia Coal Company, which is supposed to have the backing of Frick interests. With a capital of $7,000 the company has acquired 26 going coal concerns in Indiana and 30,000 acres of coal territory. A. M. Ogle of Indianapolis is the president of the company and John McFadden of Philadelphia is vice president. The directors are men well known in the central western coal trade.

There is a vein of skepticism in the following received over one of the local private wires: "Bull points on Amalgamated Copper are as plentiful as ever. They come from houses which have been active and successful in many movements in that stock. They have been given in confidence to anybody likely to communicate them to his friends."

The preliminary statement of the Louisville & Nashville Railroad Company of the results of the fiscal year ended June 30 shows a surplus (partly estimated) after all charges and dividends, of $3,576,684, against an actual surplus of $3,688,171 in the previous year.

It was rumored on the New York stock exchange yesterday that a quorum of the executive committee of the Union Pacific had been obtained after 10 o'clock and that a dividend had been declared. There were no meetings of any kind at the Union Pacific office during the day. It is said that there will be none before the regular routine meeting of the executive committee next Thursday.

Following is a rather high estimate of the value of some of this year's crops, based on the government figures for July, as follows:

Wheat, 765,565,000 bushels, at 80 cents value	$ 634,977,500
Corn, 2,671,000,000 bushels, at 55 cents value	1,468,560,000
Oats, 943,636,000 bushels, at 31 cents value	294,406,360
Barley, 141,382,000 bushels, at 45 cents value	63,627,900
Hay, 65,000,000 tons, at $10 a ton	650,000,000
Cotton, 10,000,000 bales, at $50 a bale	500,000,000
Cotton seed crop	80,000,000
Total	$3,692,366,760

The Central District and Printing Telegraph (Bell Telephone) Company has declared the usual quarterly dividend of 2 per cent, payable July 31 to stock of record July 21.

The Greensboro Gas Company has declared a dividend of $2 a share, payable July 31 to stock of record July 25.

Buying of Southern Pacific was accompanied by a report that the June earnings will show an increase of $1,100,000.

The many reports regarding the Northwestern grangers circulated this week resolved themselves into a wide range of conjecture as to the disposition to be made of Union Pacific's proceeds of the Northern Securities disclosures.

Alexander M. Brooks has been elected a member of the Pittsburgh stock exchange. He will be associated in business with J. H. & C. L. Childs. The new firm will open for business about September 1.

The market paid no attention to the reported outbreak of hostilities between Gould and Pennsylvania interests.

United States Steel was sold freely early in the session and this was supposed to be the disposition of some large lines accumulated on Monday during the selling of the rest of the market to take profits by the speculative party whose departure for a fishing excursion was announced the following day.

The tone of the time money market in New York continued to show a firmer tendency, the rates for six months loans working above 4 per cent. The action was heard in banking circles that money rates are likely to work closer in the near future and this prospect is believed to account for the disinclination to extend commitments in the stock market.

BEAVER COUNTY SITE IS BOUGHT

Midland Steel Company Closes the Deal for 1,019 Acres of Land Worth $350,000.

MANY FLATS FOR EAST END

The deals for the 1,000 acre site of the Midland Steel Company at Cooks Ferry, on the Ohio river, which were announced exclusively in The Gazette two weeks ago, have been closed, title to all the properties being taken by W. D. George of George Brothers, who made the purchases. There are 1,019 acres in the site, and the land formerly belonged to four different owners. The largest farm, 396 acres, was bought from J. A. Neel. Mr. George also secured 272 acres from the heirs of George B. Kane of Uniontown, 196 acres from William McCoy and 156 acres from Charles Brooker. Although no details concerning the price could be obtained yesterday, it is reported that the total consideration for the property was not far from $350,000, or about $350 an acre.

The land is situated in Industry township, in Beaver county, about eight miles below Beaver. It has a frontage of 3.5 miles on the Cleveland & Pittsburgh railroad, and the proposed dam No. 7 across the Ohio river will be alongside the property. This may later on be a very valuable acquisition, as the power from it can be utilized for running the immense manufacturing plants which are to be erected. The property is situated much like the Economy holdings, over 800 acres of it being on the first bench above the river, and available for manufacturing sites. The remainder slopes gently back the hill side, the general outline and contour of the tract being very regular. Surveyors and engineers are already hard at work laying out the sites for the big blast furnaces and coke ovens which are to be built first. Later on the company proposes to build plants to make up steel into a more finished form. A town site of several hundred acres probably will be laid out next spring to afford homes for the hundreds of workmen who will be drawn to the place.

Among those Pittsburghers most prominently identified with the Midland Steel Company are Charles M. Taylor of the National Bank of Western Pennsylvania, J. McKay Speer, J. Ramsey Speer, H. C. Fohnes and William C. Fohnes, Jr. The deal is the largest purchase of manufacturing property that has been consummated for two years near Pittsburgh, with the possible exception of the purchases at West Economy, which have not been fully announced.

Apartments to Cost $150,000.

Another big apartment house project is being shaped up by a prominent Pittsburgh builder, who has employed Architect W. A. Thomas to draw plans for 12 apartment houses to be built in the Twentieth ward, at a cost of at least $150,000. The buildings will be erected in four rows, one facing on Friendship park and the other in Winebiddle avenue. The site is 250x200 feet. There will be a total of over 250 rooms, or 84 rooms on a floor. These will be arranged in suites of four and six rooms each, with baths and all modern improvements provided. There will be large courts between the two wings. Bids on the group will be taken about August 1. Flats so near Friendship park should rent readily for $18 a month.

Architect R. Maurice Trimble has plans out for a handsome apartment house at Maryland avenue and Howe street, East End, for a prominent East End property owner. The building will cost $50,000, and bids on its erection will be taken next week. A feature of the structure that is entirely new in apartment house construction in this city is that each of the flats will have a separate servants' room and servants' bath.

Pays $94,000 in a Trade.

John H. Elder's purchase of the Midland hotel at Broad street and Collins avenue, Nineteenth ward, was in the nature of an exchange made through the office of C. M. Burpee. Mr. Elder secures the hotel, a three-story brick building with 29 rooms and three dining-rooms, on a lot 65x88 feet, for $94,000. This price includes the private electric light plant of the hotel and the furnishings, which are valued at $13,000, and liquor, tobacco and groceries valued at $2,500, which materially reduces the price of the real estate. In part payment for the hotel property Mr. Elder tendered two new single flat apartment houses on 90x200 feet, in the east side of Murray Hill avenue, near Fifth avenue, Twenty-second ward. These have recently been completed and contain four flats of four rooms each. They were put into the deal at $22,000, the balance being a mortgage of $39,500 on the Midland hotel, which Mr. Elder assumes, and some cash.

Through the Currier Company an offer of $285,000 has been submitted for the old M. & M. bank property, 60x148.8 feet, at 215-219 Fourth avenue. The offer was declined, and it is said the bank owners are holding the property at $400,000. Part of it runs through to Diamond street, where it has a frontage of 20 feet.

It is reported that eastern capitalists have been seeking options on the properties at the northeast corner of Fifth avenue and Grant street, valued at $1,200,000. The properties, which are said to be wanted for a site for a $1,000,000 hotel, are those of Kuskel Solomon, L. M. Yoder, M. Sirocco, F. Gazzola, Zorah Barach and J. F. McMorris. The Currier Company, it is said, has secured options on some of the smaller lots, but as far as known Mr. Solomon has given no price on his big lot at the corner.

Latest News in Building.

Architect R. Maurice Trimble will take bids the first of next week on the Protestant Episcopalian church to be erected at Oakmont at a cost of $40,000.

Architect W. A. Thomas has plans for the synagogue of the Beth Zedek congregation to be built at Ross and Clark streets, Eighth ward, at a cost of $50,000. The site is 80x130 feet.

Architects Rutan & Russell are receiving estimates on extensive alterations to the Methodist Episcopal church at Sewickley.

Plans are being prepared by a Penn avenue architect for the big oclasses refinery which P. Duff & Sons will build on the site in Rebecca street, Allegheny, which they bought last year from the Pittsburgh Stove and Range Company. It has been reported several times that the property was to be sold, but the fact that the firm is going ahead with the plans puts this rumor to rout. The refinery to be erected will be one of the largest in the country, and experts from all parts of the United States are now being consulted for new methods and equipment.

There has been no time for two years when more school houses were on the boards of local architects or under way than at present. There are at least a dozen first-class buildings in course of planning or erection, besides a number of smaller structures in the adjoining boroughs. Most of these buildings will cost $50,000 or more.

Fine Store for East End.

Reymer Brothers, Incorporated, confectioners, have secured a 10-year lease on the first floor and basement of the room at 6022 Penn avenue, East End, in the new Lloyd block. The room is 30x100 feet, and in it the firm will open August 5 a confectionery store equal to their establishment in Fifth avenue. Over $15,000 is being expended for fixtures and equipment, and the deliveries will all be made in automobiles. The firm has also nearly doubled the capacity of its big factory at Liberty avenue and Sixteenth street this year.

FALLING WHEAT MAKES FLOUR MARKET SHAKY

Heavy Cutting Being Done and Reduction Imminent—Other Lines Are All Steady.

Continued decline in the price of wheat, with a prospect of a heavy break in view of the favorable crop reports and better harvesting weather, have occasioned an increasing weakness in flour. The price of cash wheat in Chicago is still much higher than the speculative figure, but a break is looked for today. This will be followed by a cut in flour. Of course the whole matter is in the hands of the speculators and conditions may shift sufficiently to change the predictions entirely. At present heavy shading is going on all around and the present figure of $4 75 and $5 25 is considerably above the real price that is being paid.

Sugars were uncertain yesterday. San Francisco reports the sugar market there in a much demoralized condition. The same is true of the eastern market. The price of raw sugar is down and the prospects for an enormous crop of beet sugar this year are excellent. The result is that sugar looks like a much lower market than at present and it is lower now than it has been for a year.

Green goods and produce were an excellent sale yesterday, but there were no changes in quotations. Business was better than it has been any Friday for weeks.

HAY AND GRAIN.

Receipts yesterday were: Pennsylvania lines, 19 cars oats, 14 cars corn, 12 cars hay, 1 car feed; Baltimore & Ohio railroad, 1 car oats, 1 car hay; Pittsburgh & Lake Erie railroad, 9 cars oats, 2 cars corn.

No changes were wrought in prices yesterday. The bidding was spirited and sales were readily effected. Receipts continued light and helped strengthen the market. Mill feed continued slow and strong.

BRILLIANT WEATHER BREAKS WHEAT MARKET

Extreme Weakness Rules the Business—Corn and Oats Both Show a Loss.

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

CHICAGO, July 14.—Brilliant weather throughout the American wheat belt was the main reason for a fresh decline here today in the price of wheat. At the close the September delivery was 4¾c lower. Corn is down 1½c. Oats show a loss of 1@1½c. Provisions are 5c to 12½c higher.

Extreme weakness prevailed in the wheat pit from first transactions up to the final minute of trading. The paramount influence was the generally clear sky over the wheat fields of the United States and Canada. Only here was the question where rain in any large quantity had fallen during the preceding 12 hours. With conditions so favorable for the new crop, sentiment was decidedly bearish. At the opening the September option was off 1@1½c to 1½@1¾c at 83¾c to 84c.

A sharp decline in prices at Liverpool, following increased estimates from Argentina, furnished additional reason for the weakness here at the start. As trading progressed new factors of a bearish stamp developed, causing more acute weakness. One influence was the very liberal movement of new wheat to southwestern markets. Receipts at Chicago today, at Kansas City and St. Louis were 468,000 bushels, nearly five times what they amounted to a year ago. As a result of the heavy influx of new grain, prices for cash wheat at Kansas City took a new trouble, the decline today being between 2 and 4 cents a bushel. Options here were affected in consequence, and were influenced by unfavorable reports from the northwest declaring spring wheat to be maturing rapidly. Practically nothing of a bullish nature was at hand to offset bearish advices. The market received its chief support from a prominent trader, who bought liberally throughout the session. For September the lowest point of the day was reached at 83¾c. The market rallied slightly in the final dealings, the close was weak, with September at 84@84¼c. Clearances of wheat and flour were equal to 22,000 bushels. Primary receipts were 696,000 bushels, compared with 206,000 bushels a year ago. Minneapolis, Duluth and Chicago reported receipts of 770 cars, against 197 cars last year.

Profit-taking by a prominent long caused weakness in the corn market early in the day. Later the market bounded quite firm on active buying by commission houses. An estimate of small receipts for tomorrow was one of the features in favor of higher prices. Selling, however, was the most prominent of bids accepted from cash houses. The market closed comparatively steady. September opened 1@1½c lower at 54½c, sold between 54¼c and 54¾c, and closed at 54¼c. Local receipts were 240 cars, with 31 of contract grade.

Weakness of wheat started native quotations in the cash market, resulting in a considerable decline in values at the outset. Later a steadier tone developed and part of the loss was regained. September opened 1@1½c to 2c lower at 39@39½c, sold off to 38¾c and closed at 39¼c. Local receipts were 107 cars, with 31 of contract grade.

Provisions were influenced following the advance in the price of live hogs. Buying of ribs by two prominent commission houses was a feature. At the close September pork closed at an advance of 10@12½c at $17 80. Lard was up 7½c at $9 70. Ribs were up 40@45c at $7 85@.

Estimated receipts for tomorrow: Wheat, 60 cars; corn, 260 cars; oats, 113 cars; hogs, 30,000 head.

GOOD PRODUCER IS STRUCK ON THE CRYSTAL FARM

It has been many months since the local fields have been able to present as well that would be considered of enough importance to attract more than passing notice. The new strike to cause some little excitement is owned by the Crystal Farm Oil and Gas Company and is located on the Crystal farm, near Bakerstown, Allegheny county. It is this company's second test on the Crystal farm

PAYMASTER IS WELL REWARDED

F. H. Ulmer of the Wabash System Here Overcomes Thug Who Tried to Take $14,000.

LOCAL TRAFFIC MEN SHIFT

Paymaster F. H. Ulmer of the Wabash-Pittsburgh Terminal and Wheeling & Lake Erie railroads, with offices in this city, is the hero of the Wabash system's lines east of Toledo just now. He was handsomely rewarded yesterday morning by the officers of the company for his coolness and bravery in saving $14,000 of the company's money from a highwayman, who attacked him at Huron, O., a couple of days ago.

It was payday at the Huron docks of the company and Mr. Ulmer had gone to the station in possession of a small money bag containing the above amount with which to pay off the employes of the company at that point. He was met at the station by one of the clerks from the dock offices, a Mr. Miller, who had ridden to the station on a bicycle. Mr. Miller walked back to the office on one side of the bicycle, Mr. Ulmer being on the other side, and holding the bag on the seat of the machine. They had proceeded some distance, and just as they were at the least habited spot of the route from the station to the docks the highwayman, wearing a mask, stepped out and made a dash for the bag from Miller's side of the bicycle.

There was a scramble for several minutes, the highwayman being too strong for both of the railroad men, although Ulmer was formerly a baseball player and is considered strong for his size. In the scuffle the handle of the bag broke and the bag fell to the ground. The highwayman hurriedly grabbed it and started to run, with Miller close at his heels. Ulmer pulled his revolver, yelling to Miller to get out of the way.

Two shots fired from the 32-caliber revolver at a range of over 30 feet, with the highwayman running at his best clip, resulted in giving him a scalp wound and in piercing his shoulder and the upper portion of his lung. He was compelled to show weakness and the two railroad men soon had him down, although his brute strength was too powerful for them.

Instead of killing the man outright, Mr. Ulmer had the presence of mind to use the butt end of the revolver to knock the fellow into insensibility. The bag was recovered and the would-be robber was turned over to the police, insensible. When he regained consciousness he found himself in a prison. Messrs. Ulmer and Miller proceeded unmolested to the docks and paid off the men.

At the offices in the Wabash building yesterday morning Mr. Ulmer was presented with a good-sized check for his coolness and bravery in saving the company's money, and for his presence of mind in not killing the fellow outright.

Differential Matter Passed Up.

The Central Passenger association, at its meeting in Chicago, passed up the rate differential situation between lines operating from Chicago to New York, and the proposition is now up to the American association of General Passenger and Ticket Agents. This body is to hold its regular meeting in October, but there has been an intimation that a meeting may be necessary sooner than that date to take up the question. The Baltimore & Ohio and Pan-handle routes are the only ones abiding by the decision of the arbitration board in the Michigan Central case, and it is not unlikely that these roads will also reduce their rates to the same basis as the competing lines. There has been no change in the New York Central-Lake Shore and Pennsylvania-Ft. Wayne routes, which are considered the standard lines. This is the first rate war in the Chicago-New York business in 20 years. At that time a fight between the New York Central and Erie roads resulted in the reduction of the rate to $5, which fare was in vogue for about four months, when the roads saw that the low fares were not producing business, and a compromise was effected.

Rate Arbitration Not Legislation.

One of the most significant moves made since the matter of rate regulation for the railroads by the interstate commission or some other body was brought to public attention some months ago was taken at a meeting of a committee from the Ohio Shippers' association and of representatives of the Ohio railroads at Columbus Thursday. This meeting was held for the purpose of discussing a uniform system of handling complaints, it being the purpose of both shippers and carriers to adjust differences in the future on the plan of arbitration rather than to make vain efforts to secure more complicated legislation. All interests, it is claimed by both parties to this plan, will work in better harmony. While nothing definite was decided upon, another meeting will be held soon, when a permanent committee will be appointed. The action of the Ohio shippers is apparently a direct blow at the much-talked-of "more legislation and government control."

Atterbury Meets With Local Men.

General Manager Atterbury of the Pennsylvania railroad, who came into Pittsburgh Thursday night with Engineer Maintenance of Way L. R. Zollinger and Superintendent of Telegraph D. C. Stewart, was met here yesterday morning by General Superintendent R. L. O'Donnell of the Buffalo & Allegheny Valley division of the Pennsylvania, who had come down from Buffalo. These officers met with the local officers of the Pennsylvania and discussed matters of interest locally and left shortly before noon for the east, going out over the Pittsburgh division. They were accompanied by Assistant Superintendent Andrew Reiser and Assistant Engineer G. W. Snyder, and spent most of the day looking over improvements under way and proposed along the main line. Owing to General Superintendent George W. Creighton of the Pennsylvania division intending to leave for Europe yesterday, he was not with the party. No announcement was made by Mr. Atterbury of contemplated local work.

B. & O. Man Goes to N. & W.

H. E. Holverstot, who has been a clerk in the Sharpsburg office of the Baltimore & Ohio as assistant to his father, Agent P. K. Holverstot, has resigned his position to become traveling freight agent of the Norfolk & Western in this territory, under Commercial Agent S. S. Bridgers. The appointment is effective July 24. Mr. Holverstot has been in the service of the B. & O. freight department two years, and in that time has manifested the making of a good traffic man. He succeeds W. E. Zirckel as traveling freight agent of the Norfolk & Western, Mr. Zirckel having been appointed to a similar position in the Chicago & Alton service in this territory under Commercial Agent W. S. Campbell as successor to N. W. Richards, who recently took service with the Philadelphia & Reading under Commercial Freight Agent Samuel T. Schenck.

Open New Line July 29.

The new line of the Baltimore & Ohio between Youngstown and Newton Falls, O., will be opened for passenger service on July 29, at which time the new passenger station at Youngstown will also be placed into public service. The station will not be finished by that time, but the work will be sufficiently far along to allow the ticket office to be occupied and the waiting and baggage rooms used. Trains Nos. 7 and 8, which have been running between Chicago and Akron, will be extended to Youngstown, running over the old line through Warren, O.

B. & S. Has New Industry.

The Buffalo & Susquehanna railroad has just opened a new industry for freight traffic along its new line. This is a mountain of sandstone just north of Galeton, Pa., and promises to be a big freight contributor. The sandstone is being developed commercially. It is of a fine quality, and is almost unlimited in quantity. One of the orders just received calls for 400 cars of the dressed stone.

Railroad Notes.

John Hickey, conductor on the Panhandle's Columbus-Pittsburgh passenger trains, is enjoying a vacation with his family at Atlantic City.

Isaac Brenton, assistant to the assistant yard master, and William Allison, train director of the Pennsylvania's Union station terminal force, are taking a vacation jaunt to Buffalo and Canada.
